A Source of Great Anxiety.

My daughter has received great benefit from the use of VEGETINE. Her declining health was a source of great anxiety to all her friends. A few bottles of the VEGETINE restored her health strength and appetite. N. H. TILDEN. Insurance and Real Estate Agent, No. 49 Sears Building,

MOTHERS, READ THIS!

A GREAT BLESSING!!

Worth a Dollar a Drop.

Mothers, are your little ones fretful? And is your patience almost exhausted in vain efforts to please them? I can sympathize with you, and can tell you what will make your little child quiet, give it a good appetite, and procure for it hours of sweet, sound sleep.

My little girl is two and a half years old, and during that time. I have not had two consecutive nights' rest. She has been sick a number of times, and no one seemed to know what was troubling her. It was hard to hear her little fretful cry, and not know what to do for her. I doctored her for worms, but it did no good; and I was nearly tired out with sleepless nights and troublesome days.

I heard of the VEGETINE and determined to try it. It has proved a blessing to me and my child.—It has cleansed from her stomach and bowels the sores which kept gathering there; and now she sleeps soundly from her bed-time until very late in the morning, beside a long nap at mid-day. Her appetite is good; and, in fact, she is like a different child. I often say, the true value of this medicine to me is a dollar a drop. Try it. Cleanse the humors from your children's blood while they are young. Try it, and you will join with me in calling it a great blessing. MRS. ELLEN L. CLAPP, 175 Tudor Street.

SOUTH BOSTON, July 10, 1871.

CIRCULATION of the BLOOD.

The circulation of the blood is the life of the body, and its stoppage is death. We are healthy when the blood circulates freely; any interruption preventing its free course is the commencement of disease. "Blood is the life of the flesh." Can we expect to enjoy good health, when bad or corrupt humors circulate with the blood, causing pain and disease: and these humors being deposited thro'-out the entire body, produce pimples, eruptions, ulcers, indigestion, costiveness, headache, neuralgia, rheumatism, and numerous other complaints. No disease can be in the body without first being generated in the blood; and no disease can possibly be in the body, if the blood is pure. It is of great importance to know what medicine will purify and renovate the blood, eradicate the disease, renew vitality, mentally and physically, and instill fresh vigor into all the vital functions of the body. This medicine is the VEGETINE, the great blood-purifier. It extends its influence into every part of the human organism, commencing with its foundation; correcting diseased action, and restoring vital powers, creating a healthy formation and purification of the blood, driving out disease, and leaving Nature to perform its allotted task.

VEGETINE is composed of Roots, Barks and Herbs. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it. Sold by all druggists. M17w4

Making Butter.

Butter making is one of the fine arts, and the number of first-class artists engaged in this department of labor is comparatively small. It is true that all over the country, in every state, and in almost every county there are thousands of butter-makers, both men and women, who churn cream and produce an article known and sold as butter. Much of this product disgraces the name, and is wholly unfit for the table; all because a few plain principles are not known and practiced. In the country among dairymen, the ability to make good butter is considered a kind of knack, which runs in families, and many a young man contemplating going into the dairy business, marries the daughter of a noted butter-maker for the sake of her ability in this branch of business, which she is supposed to have inherited from her mother.—Other things being equal, good, first-class, and even gilt-edged butter ought to be made in every farmer's house, and especially in the house of every dairy farmer. The whole of the secret lies in the manipulation of the cream. When milk is first drawn from the cow the butter is diffused throughout the entire mass in minute globules, which rise to the surface as the milk cools. To secure the most cream, the milk should be set in shallow pans of not more than five inches in depth, in a cool place and of an even temperature and perfectly free from any unpleasant odors. The milk-room should not be used for any other purpose. A large proportion of the butter made by small dairy farmers is much injured, if not spoiled, by associating the milk and cream with a great variety of family products that impart to it an unpleasant flavor. Both cream and butter are extremely sensitive to odors; even such as arise in a house from ordinary cooking are enough to materially affect its flavor. For this reason the milk room should be isolated as much as possible, and kept with scrupulous neatness and sweetness. Never let the milk or cream sour, as it is difficult to remove the acid from the butter even by careful washing and working. We believe it best to take the cream from the milk within twenty-four hours after it is set and to churn it at once. Cream of different ages does not yield as great a proportion of butter as that of the same age. Let the cream always be of uniform temperature throughout before it is put into the churn, and of about sixty-two degrees, Fah., and there will be little trouble of frothing cream, or of "cream that won't make butter." The kind of churn we think makes little difference, but as a rule the old fashioned dash churn seems to have as many friends as any and to do its work very satisfactorily. After the butter "has come" and is well gathered into a mass, remove it to a large wooden bowl and pour over it a few quarts of cold water, which will serve to cool the butter and remove the buttermilk and any casine that may remain; afterward salt and remove to the cellar there to remain at least twenty-four hours before it receives its final working.—This latter process is one of importance, the object simply being to remove any buttermilk that may remain, and the water of crystillization furnished by the salt. Butter should never be manipulated with the hand, and it should not be overworked, else it loses its peculiar crystaline character and becomes sticky and greasy. A great many very nice and particular people make poor butter by overworking it. Pack in clean, new casks that have been well soaked in brine. Keep from the air as much as possible. When the firkin or tub is full, cover with a cloth well spread with salt and then cover or head as tight as is convenient.

To recapitulate:—Sweet cream, uniform temperature, scrupulously clean utensils, casine and buttermilk carefully removed, not overworked, and a cool, dark cellar for keeping will invariably give first quality butter.

OLD FARMER.

A Pleasant Chat About Hay.

A contributor to the Hartford Courant says: "In expending our little bay of hay—a twelve-feet cube, or thereabouts—I find each horse-load reminds me by its peculiar herbage of the part of the meadow it came from, and the circumstances of its gathering in the regular inverted sequence of the hay harvest. The loads that were perfectly cured give an account of themselves in a more aromatic sweetness. Those that were stored with a risky excess of moisture tell the tale in volumes of fine musty dust, especially in the middle of the mow. The heat there was undoubtedly near the scalding point, the hay shows a dull, brownish green tint, and has become very dry and brittle. The sugary gums and dried juices belonging to hay in its best condition, and tending to preserve the weight and strength of its fibre, seems to have been quite consumed in the interior parts of some of the loads. So that the young ones in one stormy day, with a jumping frolic, may reduce a whole foddering to the lightest chaff. The outside is in better condition, showing that, if I had taken the precaution to provide one or several small air-holes from the bottom upward, as by pulling up short pieces of joist while the hay was being filled in, this waste of the richer and more appetizing portions of the fodder might have been prevented.

A partial remedy in the use of such hay is to sprinkle each foddering with water several hours before it is wanted. A pail of water, say, for ten or twelve animals. If the hay is fine, whatever provender is fed may be mingled with the hay, layer by layer—adding more water from the nose of the water-pot. This without a slop upon a clean barn floor, or making the mixture heavier than wilted grass. The water alone will settle the dust, and develop anew whatever of fragrance the hay may be capable of yielding. The improvement is as obvious as that produced in stale breed by steaming, or heating in the oven with a moist cloth. It is a similar dampening by the weather that makes rough and moist fodder, thrown from the stack, more acceptable to cattle, sometimes, than the best dry hay would be."

Why Barney was Retained.

The "Editor's Drawer" of the April Harper has this: A firm dealing largely in coal in one of our Western cities had in their service an Irishman named Barney. One day the head of the firm, irritated beyond endurance at one of Barney's blunders, told him to go to the office and get his pay, and added: "You are so thick-headed I can't teach you anything." "Begorra," says Barney, "I larnt wan thing since I've been wid ye!" "What's that?" asked his employer. "That sivinteen hundred make a ton!" Barney was retained, or, to use the phraseology of a Southern gentleman who has just won the heart and hand of one of New York's most opulent widows, "he resumed the primeval condition of his former rectitude."

The debt of Philadelphia is now $61,00,000. She must have contracted this immense debt in building up her daily newspapers. We can't see how they could have been built up for less money.—Louisville Journal.

WHEREAS, DEFAULT HAS been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage dated the 1st day of April, 1870, executed by John D. Deyo, widower, of the Town of Shawangunk, in the County of Ulster and State of New York, to Jane Smith, then the wife of Gardinier Smith, of the Town of Hurley, in the County and State aforesaid, to secure the payment of thirty-seven hundred dollars with interest thereon from the date thereof on the first day of April, 1872, and which mortgage was recorded in the Clerk's office of said County of Ulster in Book No. 110 of mortgages, on page 285, &c., on the 21st day of March, 1872, at 2½ o'clock P. M.

And whereas the said Jane Smith died intestate on the 11th day of January, 1874, leaving Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. Smith, Mary Dennis and Jeannette Van Wagenen, all above twenty-one years of age, as her only children and heirs-at-law, her surviving.

And whereas the said Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. Smith, Mary Dennis and Jeannette Van Wagenen, duly assigned and transferred all their right, title and interest in and to the said mortgage, and the bond accompanying the same, to their father, Gardinier Smith, by assignment dated the 31st day of January, 1874, duly recorded in the said Ulster County Clerk's office.

And whereas the amount claimed to be due upon said mortgage at the time of the first publication of this notice is the sum of three thousand nine hundred and ninety-one dollars and sixteen cents, to-wit: $3,700 of principal and $291.16 of interest, and which is the whole amount claimed to be unpaid on said mortgage.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the said mortgage and the power of sale therein contained and duly recorded as aforesaid and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described, at Public Auction at the front door of the Court House, in the City of Kingston, in the County of Ulster and State of New York, on the 20th day of May, 1874, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day.

The premises are described in the mortgage as follows: All that certain lot, piece or parcel of land situate in the Town of Shawangunk aforesaid, and is known and distinguished as being the same farm now owned and occupied by John D. Deyo, and is described in three lots or parcels of land as follows, namely: Beginning with the lot the said John D. Deyo purchased from Willet Leuderman and his wife Sarah, and at a corner on the west side of the highway leading to Kingston, then as the needle pointed in 1820 north fifty degrees twenty minutes, west twenty-eight chains fourteen links to a corner of a lot of land sold to Joseph Eckert, then along the same south forty-two and three-quarter degrees west four chains seventy-one links, then north forty-five degrees forty-five minutes west seven chains to the center of a highway leading to Kutsonville; the two last courses are as the needle now points; then as it pointed in 1820 south twenty-nine degrees and forty-five minutes west seven chains and fifty links to a lot bought by Samuel Aldrich and others, then south fifty degrees twenty minutes east twenty-nine chains thirty links to a stone set by the westerly side of the aforesaid highway, then along the same to the beginning, containing thirty-six acres of land.

Also all that other lot purchased from Samuel Aldrich and others, and bounded as follows, namely: North by the above described lot, east by the public highway, south by lands of Peter Van Aken, west by the lands of Abram Vernooy, containing forty acres of land more or less.

Also all that other lot of land which is known as the same farm formerly owned by Jonathan Terwilliger, and is bounded as follows, namely: Beginning at a corner of land belonging to the heirs of William Rosekrans, from thence south seventy-five degrees and thirty minutes west two chains sixteen links to the line of the first described lot, then along the same north forty-seven degrees west ten chains thirty-one links, then north forty degrees and forty-five minutes east four chains and seventy-four links, then south thirty-two degrees forty-five minutes east eleven chains ninety-four links to the beginning, containing three acres and eight-tenths of an acre of land.

Dated February 23, 1874.

MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE.—Whereas default has been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage dated the fourth day of May, 1854, executed by Cornelius H. Elting and Catherine Ann, his wife, of the town of Westfield, Richmond County, New York, to secure the payment of fifteen hundred dollars with interest thereon from the date thereof on the fourth day of May, 1855, and which mortgage was recorded in the Clerk's Office of the County of Ulster in Book No. 48 of Mortgages, on page 326 &c., June 22, 1854, at 9 o'clock A. M.

And whereas the said Cornelius Oliver duly assigned and transferred said mortgage and the bond accompanying the same to Jane Smith, wife of Gardinier Smith of the town of Hurley, Ulster County, New York, by assignment dated April 27, 1867, and recorded in the Ulster County Clerk's Office in Book No. 89 of Mortgages, on page 532, &c., May 30, 1868, at 10½ o'clock A. M.

And whereas the said Jane Smith died intestate and without debts on the 11th day of January, 1874, leaving Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. Smith, Mary Dennis, and Jeannette Van Wagenen, all above twenty-one years of age, as her only children and heirs at law.

And whereas, the said Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. Smith, Mary Dennis and Jeannette Van Wagenen duly assigned and transferred all their right, title and interest in and to said bond and mortgage to their father, Gardinier Smith, by assignment dated January 31, 1874, and duly recorded in the Ulster County Clerk's office, in book 186 of deeds, on page 59, &c., February 20, 1874.

And whereas the amount claimed to be due upon said mortgage at the time of the first publication of this notice is the sum of fifteen hundred and ninety one dollars, and eighty-two cents, to wit: $1,500 of principal and $91.82 of interest, and which is the whole amount claimed to be unpaid on said mortgage.

Now therefore, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the said mortgage and the power of sale therein contained, and duly recorded as aforesaid; and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described at public auction at the front door of the Court House, in the city of Kingston, in the county of Ulster, and state of New York, on the 12th day of June, 1874, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day.

The premises are described in said mortgage as follows: All that certain farm lying in the town of Marbletown, in the county of Ulster, and state of New York, and is bounded as follows, viz: Bounded on the north by lands of the heirs of John P. Brink and Gardinier Smith, on the east by lands of Abraham Diets and southwestern turnpike, on the south by lands of Jacob VanCuren, Edward O'Neil, Cornelius M. VanBuren, John Dewitt and Henry T. Jansen, and on the west by Mountain Road, containing about three hundred and thirty-four acres, be the same more or less, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues and profit thereof.

Dated March 19th, 1874.

"Philadelphia, Nov. 1, 1869.
I consider the New American Cyclopaedia, published by D. Appleton & Co., vastly superior for the American reader to any other Cyclopaedia now before the public. REV. BISHOP SIMPSON."
"Boston, Oct. 25, 1869.
I own Appletons' Cyclopaedia, and use it constantly. It should be in every library, public and private—I would say in every house, within reach of every family. The young should use it. CHARLES SUMNER."
"I use the 'New American Cyclopaedia' every day, generally many times a day. I think it the best work of the kind in existence. It is singularly well suited to families. The children who grow up in a house where there is a copy of it within reach, can hardly escape becoming well-informed persons. I value it very highly, and am glad of this opportunity of testifying my gratitude. JAMES PARTON."
"Tribune Office, N. Y. City, Oct. 30, 1869.
MY DEAR SIR: I have used the 'New American Cyclopaedia' since the first volume came into existence, and deem it the best work of the kind in print. Yours, &c., HORACE GREELEY."

A Source of Great Anxiety.

My daughter has received great benefit from the use of VEGETINE. Her declining health was a source of great anxiety to all her friends. A few bottles of the VEGETINE restored her health strength and appetite. N. H. TILDEN, Insurance and Real Estate Agent, No. 49 Sears Building,

MOTHERS, READ THIS!

A GREAT BLESSING ! !

Worth a Dollar a Drop.

Mothers, are your little ones fretful? And is your patience almost exhausted in vain efforts to please them? I can sympathize with you, and can tell you what will make your little child quiet, give it a good appetite, and procure for it hours of sweet, sound sleep.

My little girl is two and a half years old, and during that time. I have not had two consecutive nights' rest. She has been sick a number of times, and no one seemed to know what was troubling her. It was hard to hear her little fretful cry, and not know what to do for her. I doctored her for worms, but it did no good; and I was nearly tired out with sleepless nights and troublesome days.

I heard of the VEGETINE and determined to try it. It has proved a blessing to me and my child.—It has cleansed from her stomach and bowels the sores which kept gathering there; and now she sleeps soundly from her bed-time until very late in the morning, beside a long nap at mid-day. Her appetite is good; and, in fact, she is like a different child. I often say, the true value of this medicine to me is a dollar a drop. Try it. Cleanse the humors from your children's blood while they are young. Try it, and you will join with me in calling it a great blessing. MRS. ELLEN L. CLAPP, 175 Tudor Street.

SOUTH BOSTON, July 10, 1871.

CIRCULATION of the BLOOD.

The circulation of the blood is the life of the body, and its stoppage is death. We are healthy when the blood circulates freely; any interruption preventing its free course is the commencement of disease. "Blood is the life of the flesh." Can we expect to enjoy good health, when bad or corrupt humors circulate with the blood, causing pain and disease: and these humors being deposited throughout the entire body, produce pimples, eruptions, ulcers, indigestion, costiveness, headache, neuralgia, rheumatism, and numerous other complaints. No disease can be in the body without first being generated in the blood; and no disease can possibly be in the body, if the blood is pure. It is of great importance to know what medicine will purify and renovate the blood, eradicate the disease, renew vitality, mentally and physically, and instill fresh vigor into all the vital functions of the body. This medicine is the VEGETINE, the great blood-purifier.

It extends its influence into every part of the human organism, commencing with its foundation; correcting diseased action, and restoring vital powers, creating a healthy formation and purification of the blood, driving out disease, and leaving Nature to perform its allotted task.

VEGETINE is composed of Roots, Barks and Herbs. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it. Sold by all druggists. M17w4

Making Butter.

Butter making is one of the fine arts, and the number of first-class artists engaged in this department of labor is comparatively small. It is true that all over the country, in every state, and in almost every county there are thousands of butter-makers, both men and women, who churn cream and produce an article known and sold as butter. Much of this product disgraces the name, and is wholly unfit for the table; all because a few plain principles are not known and practiced. In the country among dairymen, the ability to make good butter is considered a kind of knack, which runs in families, and many a young man contemplating going into the dairy business, marries the daughter of a noted butter-maker for the sake of her ability in this branch of business, which she is supposed to have inherited from her mother.—Other things being equal, good, first-class, and even gilt-edged butter ought to be made in every farmer's house, and especially in the house of every dairy farmer. The whole of the secret lies in the manipulation of the cream. When milk is first drawn from the cow the butter is diffused throughout the entire mass in minute globules, which rise to the surface as the milk cools. To secure the most cream, the milk should be set in shallow pans of not more than five inches in depth, in a cool place and of an even temperature and perfectly free from any unpleasant odors. The milk-room should not be used for any other purpose. A large proportion of the butter made by small dairy farmers is much injured, if not spoiled, by associating the milk and cream with a great variety of family products that impart to it an unpleasant flavor. Both cream and butter are extremely sensitive to odors; even such as arise in a house from ordinary cooking are enough to materially affect its flavor. For this reason the milk room should be isolated as much as possible, and kept with scrupulous neatness and sweetness. Never let the milk or cream sour, as it is difficult to remove the acid from the butter even by careful washing and working. We believe it best to take the cream from the milk within twenty-four hours after it is set and to churn it at once. Cream of different ages does not yield as great a proportion of butter as that of the same age. Let the cream always be of uniform temperature throughout before it is put into the churn, and of about sixty-two degrees, Fah., and there will be little trouble of frothing cream, or of "cream that won't make butter." The kind of churn we think makes little difference, but as a rule the old fashioned dash churn seems to have as many friends as any and to do its work very satisfactorily. After the butter "has come" and is well gathered into a mass, remove it to a large wooden bowl and pour over it a few quarts of cold water, which will serve to cool the butter and remove the buttermilk and any casine that may remain; afterward salt and remove to the cellar there to remain at least twenty-four hours before it receives its final working.—This latter process is one of importance, the object simply being to remove any buttermilk that may remain, and the water of crystilization furnished by the salt. Butter should never be manipulated with the hand, and it should not be overworked, else it loses its peculiar crystaline character and becomes sticky and greasy. A great many very nice and particular people make poor butter by overworking it. Pack in clean, new casks that have been well soaked in brine. Keep from the air as much as possible. When the firkin or tub is full, cover with a cloth well spread with salt and then cover or head as tight as is convenient.

To recapitulate:—Sweet cream, uniform temperature, scrupulously clean utensils, casine and buttermilk carefully removed, not overworked, and a cool, dark cellar for keeping will invariably give first quality butter.

OLD FARMER.

A Pleasant Chat About Hay.

A contributor to the Hartford Courant says: "In expending our little bay of hay—a twelve-feet cube, or thereabouts—I find each horse-load reminds me by its peculiar herbage of the part of the meadow it came from, and the circumstances of its gathering in the regular inverted sequence of the hay harvest. The loads that were perfectly cured give an account of themselves in a more aromatic sweetness. Those that were stored with a risky excess of moisture tell the tale in volumes of fine musty dust, especially in the middle of the mow. The heat there was undoubtedly near the scalding point, the hay shows a dull, brownish green tint, and has become very dry and brittle. The sugary gums and dried juices belonging to hay in its best condition, and tending to preserve the weight and strength of its fibre, seems to have been quite consumed in the interior parts of some of the loads. So that the young ones in one stormy day, with a jumping frolic, may reduce a whole foddering to the lightest chaff. The outside is in better condition, showing that, if I had taken the precaution to provide one or several small air-holes from the bottom upward, as by pulling up short pieces of joist while the hay was being filled in, this waste of the richer and more appetizing portions of the fodder might have been prevented.

A partial remedy in the use of such hay is to sprinkle each foddering with water several hours before it is wanted. A pail of water, say, for ten or twelve animals. If the hay is fine, whatever provender is fed may be mingled with the hay, layer by layer—adding more water from the nose of the water-pot. This without a slop upon a clean barn floor, or making the mixture heavier than wilted grass. The water alone will settle the dust, and develop anew whatever of fragrance the hay may be capable of yielding. The improvement is as obvious as that produced in stale breed by steaming, or heating in the oven with a moist cloth. It is a similar dampening by the weather that makes rough and moist fodder, thrown from the stack, more acceptable to cattle, sometimes, than the best dry hay would be."

Why Barney was Retained.

The "Editor's Drawer" of the April Harper has this: A firm dealing largely in coal in one of our Western cities had in their service an Irishman named Barney. One day the head of the firm, irritated beyond endurance at one of Barney's blunders, told him to go to the office and get his pay, and added: "You are so thick-headed I can't teach you anything." "Begorra," says Barney, "I larnt wan thing since I've been wid ye!" "What's that?" asked his employer. "That sivinteen hundred make a ton!" Barney was retained, or, to use the phraseology of a Southern gentleman who has just won the heart and hand of one of New York's most opulent widows, "he resumed the primeval condition of his former rectitude."

The debt of Philadelphia is now $61,00,000. She must have contracted this immense debt in building up her daily newspapers. We can't see how they could have been built up for less money.—Louisville Journal.

WHEREAS, DEFAULT HAS been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage dated the 1st day of April, 1870, executed by John D. Deyo, widower, of the Town of Shawangunk, in the County of Ulster and State of New York, to Jane Smith, then the wife of Gardinier Smith, of the Town of Hurley, in the County and State aforesaid, to secure the payment of thirty-seven hundred dollars with interest thereon from the date thereof on the first day of April, 1872, and which mortgage was recorded in the Clerk's office of said County of Ulster in Book No. 110 of mortgages, on page 285, &c., on the 21st day of March, 1872, at 2½ o'clock P. M.

And whereas the said Jane Smith died intestate on the 11th day of January, 1874, leaving Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. Smith, Mary Dennis and Jeannette Van Wagenen, all above twenty-one years of age, as her only children and heirs-at-law, her surviving.

And whereas the said Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. Smith, Mary Dennis and Jeannette Van Wagenen, duly assigned and transferred all their right, title and interest in and to the said mortgage, and the bond accompanying the same, to their father, Gardinier Smith, by assignment dated the 31st day of January, 1874, duly recorded in the said Ulster County Clerk's office.

And whereas the amount claimed to be due upon said mortgage at the time of the first publication of this notice is the sum of three thousand nine hundred and ninety-one dollars and sixteen cents, to-wit: $3,700 of principal and $291.16 of interest, and which is the whole amount claimed to be unpaid on said mortgage.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the said mortgage and the power of sale therein contained and duly recorded as aforesaid and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described, at Public Auction at the front door of the Court House, in the City of Kingston, in the County of Ulster and State of New York, on the 20th day of May, 1874, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day.

The premises are described in the mortgage as follows: All that certain lot, piece or parcel of land situate in the Town of Shawangunk aforesaid, and is known and distinguished as being the same farm now owned and occupied by John D. Deyo, and is described in three lots or parcels of land as follows, namely: Beginning with the lot the said John D. Deyo purchased from Willet Leuderman and his wife Sarah, and at a corner on the west side of the highway leading to Kingston, then as the needle pointed in 1820 north fifty degrees twenty minutes, west twenty-eight chains fourteen links to a corner of a lot of land sold to Joseph Eckert, then along the same south forty-two and three-quarter degrees west four chains seventy-one links, then north forty-five degrees forty-five minutes west seven chains to the center of a highway leading to Kutsonville; the two last courses are as the needle now points; then as it pointed in 1820 south twenty-nine degrees and forty-five minutes west seven chains and fifty links to a lot bought by Samuel Aldrich and others, then south fifty degrees twenty minutes east twenty-nine chains thirty links to a stone set by the westerly side of the aforesaid highway, then along the same to the beginning, containing thirty-six acres of land.

Also all that other lot purchased from Samuel Aldrich and others, and bounded as follows, namely: North by the above described lot, east by the public highway, south by lands of Peter Van Aken, west by the lands of Abram Vernooy, containing forty acres of land more or less.

Also all that other lot of land which is known as the same farm formerly owned by Jonathan Terwilliger, and is bounded as follows, namely: Beginning at a corner of land belonging to the heirs of William Rosekrans, from thence south seventy-five degrees and thirty minutes west two chains sixteen links to the line of the first described lot, then along the same north forty-seven degrees west ten chains thirty-one links, then north forty degrees and forty-five minutes east four chains and seventy-five links, then south thirty-two degrees forty-five minutes east eleven chains ninety-four links to the beginning, containing three acres and eight-tenths of an acre of land.

Dated February 23, 1874.

REFEREE'S SALE.—SUPREME Court, Ulster County. William Gokey against Patrick Rafferty, Jr., John Maxwell and Matthew Larkin, Jr.

In pursuance of a judgment of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, the subscriber, as Referee therein, will sell, at the Mansion House, in the city of Kingston, N. Y., on the 24th day of April, 1874, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at public auction, the following described property, to-wit:

All that certain lot of land situated, lying and being in the village of Rondout, in the town of Kingston, formerly, now city of Kingston, in the county of Ulster and state of New York, distinguished as lot No. 130, on the property of George North as described and designated in a survey of the same accompanied by a map thereof, drawn by D. Ferguson, August, 1854, being in front thirty feet (30), in rear thirty-five feet (35) more or less, and one hundred (100) feet deep and being bounded as follows: Beginning at the northwest corner of lot No. 119 on Cedar street and runs thence easterly along the rear of lots No. 119 and 118 one hundred feet, thence northerly on a line parallel with Cedar street thirty-five (35) feet more or less, to the rear of lot No. 121, thence westerly along the rear of lots No. 119, 120 and 121, one hundred feet to Cedar street, thence southerly along Cedar street thirty feet to the place of beginning. Being the same lot and premises as described in a deed given to Peter and Bridget McGrath or (McGurck) by Edgar B. Newkirk and Walter B. Crane, assignees of George North, dated September 2d, 1864, and recorded in the Ulster County Clerk's office in book No. 128 of deeds, at page 42, and conveyed to the defendant, Patrick Rafferty, Jr., by deed dated August 31st, 1869, by said Peter and Bridget McGrath, or (McGurth).

Dated March 30th, 1874.

MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE.—Whereas default has been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage dated the fourth day of May, 1854, executed by Cornelius H. Elting and Catherine Ann, his wife, of the town of Westfield, Richmond County, New York, to secure the payment of fifteen hundred dollars with interest thereon from the date thereof on the fourth day of May, 1855, and which mortgage was recorded in the Clerk's Office of the County of Ulster in Book No. 48 of Mortgages, on page 326 &c., June 22, 1854, at 9 o'clock A. M.

And whereas the said Cornelius Oliver duly assigned and transferred said mortgage and the bond accompanying the same to Jane Smith, wife of Gardinier Smith of the town of Hurley, Ulster County, New York, by assignment dated April 27, 1867, and recorded in the Ulster County Clerk's Office in Book No. 89 of Mortgages, on page 532, &c., May 30, 1868, at 10½ o'clock A. M.

And whereas the said Jane Smith died intestate and without debts on the 11th day of January, 1874, leaving Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. Smith, Mary Dennis, and Jeannette Van Wagenen, all above twenty-one years of age, as her only children and heirs at law.

And whereas, the said Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. Smith, Mary Dennis and Jeannette Van Wagenen duly assigned and transferred all their right, title and interest in and to said bond and mortgage to their father, Gardinier Smith, by assignment dated January 31, 1874, and duly recorded in the Ulster County Clerk's office, in book 186 of deeds, on page 59, &c., February 20, 1874.

And whereas the amount claimed to be due upon said mortgage at the time of the first publication of this notice is the sum of fifteen hundred and ninety one dollars, and eighty-two cents, to wit: $1,500 of principal and $91.82 of interest, and which is the whole amount claimed to be unpaid on said mortgage.

Now therefore, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the said mortgage and the power of sale therein contained, and duly recorded as aforesaid; and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described at public auction at the front door of the Court House, in the city of Kingston, in the county of Ulster, and state of New York, on the 12th day of June, 1874, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day.

The premises are described in said mortgage as follows: All that certain farm lying in the town of Marbletown, in the county of Ulster, and state of New York, and is bounded as follows, viz: Bounded on the north by lands of the heirs of John P. Brink and Gardinier Smith, on the east by lands of Abraham Diets and southwestern turnpike, on the south by lands of Jacob VanCuren, Edward O'Neil, Cornelius M. VanBuren, John Dewitt and Henry T. Jansen, and on the west by Mountain Road, containing about three hundred and thirty-four acres, be the same more or less, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues and profit thereof.

DISTINGUISHED AMERICANS.

"No. 17 Arlington St., London, England. Jan. 6. 1870.

"I thank you for the opportunity of expressing my opinion of the great value of the 'NEW AMERICAN' and 'ANNUAL CYCLOPEDIA.' I own the work and have it with me here, and am in the habit of consulting it every day to my very great advantage. It is most admirable. J. L. MOTLEY, "U. S. Minister to the Court of St. James."

"Philadelphia, Nov. 1, 1869.

I consider the New American Cyclopaedia, published by D. Appleton & Co., vastly superior for the American reader to any other Cyclopaedia now before the public. REV. BISHOP SIMPSON."

"Boston, Oct. 25, 1869.

I own Appletons' Cyclopaedia, and use it constantly. It should be in every library, public and private—I would say in every house, within reach of every family. The young should use it. CHARLES SUMNER."

"I use the 'New American Cyclopaedia' every day, generally many times a day. I think it the best work of the kind in existence. It is singularly well suited to families. The children who grow up in a house where there is a copy of it within reach, can hardly escape becoming well-informed persons. I value it very highly, and am glad of this opportunity of testifying my gratitude. JAMES PARTON."

"Tribune Office, N. Y. City, Oct. 30, 1869.

MY DEAR SIR: I have used the 'New American Cyclopaedia' since the first volume came into existence, and deem it the best work of the kind in print. Yours, &c., HORACE GREELEY."

The Daily Freeman.

Kingston, Saturday Morning, April 11.

The speakers at the anniversary of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Church were quite plain in their remarks. Rev. J. M. Buckley said education without virtue is productive of more harm than good, and cited Ben. Butler. Dr. Hatfield condemned the carpet-baggers and adventurers who had control of the South, and said the country would be financially ruined if purer counsels did not prevail. He also reminded Grant he was elected by the Republican party. We don't know as it affects Grant's feelings much, but this continual reminder of the fact is becoming cruelly irritating to the party.

The Tribune's Birthday.

We were right glad to read The Tribune's editorial announcement of its thirty-fourth birthday. We always sympathize with any person or paper which is persecuted for opinion sake, and the assurance of their success in resisting such raids is a very valuable indication that the public are daily growing more sensible of the worth and rights of opinion. We carry our convictions so far in this line that we even sympathize with the Times in its prospective trouble in the shape of a new Republican organ, of whose establishment there are rumors once in a while. The Times has been very exultant at what it supposed was a triumphant crusade against a competitor, and its chief stock in trade was the unsatisfactory opinions of its rival. The Times was helped in its raid by a display of administrative sympathy through the practical channel of postoffices and the like seldom witnessed, but we hope the same force cannot be developed in diminishing the list of the Times as was used in swelling it.

It is certainly gratifying to know that the withheld dividends of The Tribune are only withheld because they are invested as fast as earned in its valuable real estate in Printing House Square. Its business is constantly growing too, and it claims with what appear to be substantial grounds that it has the largest circulation of any four-cent daily in the metropolis, and comes next to the Herald in the size of its city circulation. All this is better still because it deserves it all; for it is without doubt the best daily paper on the continent—perhaps we should say in the world.

Bergh Burlesqued, but Still Busy.

The merry wits who frequent legislative halls have been getting up a burlesque on Bergh's laws for the betterment of the condition of animals. Like all reforms, there is a chance on the edges for keen wits to make considerable fun in the line of reducing the thing to an absurdity. The "Act for the protection of life" and prevention of cruelty to animals is decidedly funny. It solemnly enacts that any person shall be imprisoned a year who kills "any animal, vertebrate or invertebrate, winged, finned or scaled, centipede, octoped, sexiped, quadruped or biped," and gives him six months for any wound, puncture or perforation of any living thing. When this is done by persons under twelve years of age they are to receive twenty-five lashes with a leather strap or pickled rod. It is not considered a valid excuse that the animal is used for human food, it only being legal to eat such animals as have died a natural death. The penalties in the case of oysters are gradated as follows: On the half-shell, two months; stewed, three months; Boston stewed, four months; fried, six months; roast, eight months; broiled, ten months; roast in the shell, twelve months. These degrees of punishment are arranged with a proper appreciation of the relative enormity. Any person mutilating any animal, such as cutting the ears of dogs, is made subject to the lex talionis.

While the wits are thus making sport of the "Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals," its noble President has been doing a very worthy deed in rescuing a little girl from the brutal treatment of a man and woman named Connolly, who seem to have treated the poor child as a slave. The little girl was prematurely old, and had never been petted nor taken on a mother's lap, had never seen any stockings, and was creased with whippings and seamed with scars. In this case Mr. Bergh has stepped forward and done the unpleasant work of others. Each community has scores of voluble champions of humanity, who always wait for Mr. Bergh's kind to do the disagreeable and responsible work; but it is plainly to be seen that Mr. Bergh has a broad humanity that is not exhausted by his efforts in behalf of the brute creation.

The Protest of a True Artist.

Charlotte Cushman, the veteran actress, has done a brave deed for her profession, but one very much needed, in declining to serve gratuitously at a charity entertainment in Washington. It required some bravery to write the refusal, as the dramatic profession doesn't receive much charity in the interpretation of its motives by those who mix most largely in these benevolent enterprises or are most conspicuous in managing them. Failure on their part to do all that is asked of them in this respect, is invariably attributed to lack of sympathy with the cause.

Charitable committees seem to think all that artists give them in professional service costs them next to nothing, as it involves no actual outlay of money. "They only give their time, and what are a few hours' time for so good a cause?" say the committeemen. Miss Cushman shows that the artist of as great eminence as herself in her profession actually gives from $400 to $500 each night he or she performs at a charitable entertainment without charge. The public think they are straining themselves greatly and exhibiting extraordinary regard for the recipients of their dole when they buy a ticket at the munificent sum of from one to five dollars, while the artist who gives her night, for which she can command $500, is only credited for showing good-will, and yet she really returns in value received to each one the full amount they expended to hear her. The suggestion dropped by Miss Cushman, in concluding her letter, is very practical. The household visitation for funds, as well as for information regarding the necessities of the neighborhood, is probably the most efficient and at the same time most economical means of reaching the poor. The most perfect plan is that in use in a city in Germany whose name we do not now recall, where all persons desiring to contribute to the necessities of the poor have entire charge of those in their immediate neighborhood, applying the funds just where they will do the most good, and at the same time preventing all imposition. It will be a good thing if Miss Cushman's earnest and sensible words go farther than effecting their immediate object, and help churches and kindred organizations abolish the entire system of raising funds by fairs, festivals or concerts. There is but little of the real principle of giving in requiring a portion of your money back in the shape of music or pincushions, prize cake or strawberries.

A Sensible Minister.

Rev. W. H. H. Murray, of Adiroandack, may be a very sensational man, but he has a broad stratum of common-sense in him, with the equally desirable quality of tossing chunks of it to his congregation and the outside world with the greatest freedom. The men who will take the responsibility of saying to people what nobody else has ever said to them before, especially if they are church people, are heroes of an uncommon degree of moral courage, and much more rare than the Christian charity of which Hood bewailed.

Mr. Murray asked for an associate pastor, but the congregation rather demurred, whereupon he tells them if the lack of funds is the difficulty they need not pay himself any salary until the finances of the church will fully stand it. He certainly evinces his earnestness by making the offer, and at the same time has sense of its importance.

It is rather strange that with all the attention devoted to the machinery of churches there is but one church that seizes the real key to success in the matter of pastors. The Catholic church has a regular order of preachers, and wherever the church is at all numerous the pastor has an assistant, and where the pastoral work is not kept almost distinct from the preachers it is at least divided to such an extent that it does not interfere with the preacher's hours for study and preparation. There is scarcely a church in any but the largest cities but expects a miracle, and the fact that miracles cannot conveniently be wrought every day accounts for the lack of vigor so painfully manifest in so many of these organizations. The cases are very rare in which a preacher of more than average ability is at all successful in a social way; while the astor who mingles most freely and constantly among his people, is the most tender sympathizer in their sorrows, adviser in their troubles, and confidant for their most sacred thoughts, rarely reaches above mediocrity in the pulpit. The very tendency of mind that makes the one tends to unfit him for the other. The good sermon that lasts more than an hour in the memory of the hearer, must be hammered out in the study; but every hour spent there is begrudged by a people clamorous for pastoral visits, so that even if a man is genius enough to do both kinds of work well he finds them tugging in opposite directions and mutually destructive of each other. The man who gives two sermons a Sunday that five hundred people care to listen to or from which they can derive profit, must pound away at them every day in the week, and when he has prepared and delivered them he has done all the literary work one man ought to do in a week. The fact that the good preacher don't do more pastoral work or the good pastor more able preaching, is, however, always put to his discredit as something he won't and not as something he can't do; and so we have an unending succession of unsatisfactory pastorates simply because churches won't use a little common-sense. The way out of the difficulty is the one proposed by Adirondack Murray, which every church should adopt unless financially unable.

CURRENT TOPICS.

—What a "mighty foine country" would this be with no rum and compulsory education.

—It seems to be generally concluded that the President will veto inflation, for which he should have a vote of thanks.

—They do the thing up pretty unanimously in Rhode Island. In ten towns the Republican candidate for Governor got every vote in the ballot-box.

—Thurlow Weed thinks the strength of the Temperance cause is in moral suasion, especially when it has the force of the present movement.

—The Brooklyn Eagle suggests P. T. Barnum for Secretary of the Treasury. This is too much of an improvement on Richardson to take at one jump.

—The Freeman's Journal says no good Catholic can join the Grangers. As it is a secret society it is emphatically prohibited by Apostolic Constitutions.

—Secretary Richardson had better resign. He must go out anyway, and it would be better not to be kicked out. If he does not get out soon he may be impeached.

—The Hartford Times, the local Democratic organ, says it's all nonsense to call it a Democratic victory. "It was a great popular uprising against Grantism."

—That Providence Bank of Commerce man has come to his senses, and withdrawn proings in the Sprague bankruptcy suit. He had a narrow escape from making a complete ass of himself.

—There has been talk of starting another Republican organ at New York. Congressman Platt is talked of for editor. He can write more frankly than any man in the country.

—The leading Democratic paper of the Mississippi Valley laughs at ten Democrats of Missouri who publicly say the party still lives, and the leading Democratic paper in the northwest calls them idiots.

—Gov. Dix's appointment of Francis S. Thayer as Canal Auditor is widely commended. Indeed, so far Gov. Dix's official acts all meet with the warmest approval, and especially his message on inflation.

—Nothing but the prompt impeachment of Old Prob. will bring peace to this distracted country. Buffalo cut 12-inch ice from Lake Erie on Wednesday. If the ice companies are going to harvest their crop in summer, pray when are they going to sell it?

—The Catholic Union is very strongly of the opinion that Catholics in penal institutions do not have their rights, and sounds the first notes of a war that shall not end until no Catholic prisoner shall be deprived of instruction according to his faith.

—Napoleon Bonaparte's dispatch from the spirit world that France will never be satisfied with any but a Napoleon so long as any of that name are above ground, is just what France needed. Not knowing her own mind, such a dispatch does as satisfactorily as an egg in coffee. Now let France settle down.

OUR ALBANY CORRESPONDENCE.

ALBANY, April 9, 1874.

EDITOR FREEMAN:—We are expecting the Senate Finance Committee to report the Supply Bill to-morrow, but it may not be done until the Senate Committee gets through its new Capitol investigation, but I reckon the commission on that building is politically strong enough with both parties to hold their ground. There is one feature about this investigation that calls for comment. The committee consists of Messrs. Wood, Selkreg and Lowery—one able lawyer, and the two others sufficiently intelligent to conduct this examination without the aid of two outside counsel—who will want $1,000 each or more next year for their services in conducting this case against the Commissioners. In fact there are three lawyers besides these counsel, who are engaged by outsiders to push the investigation. Here, then, we find three lawyers, who are sufficient, but the committee adds one or two more. These are the men who will exercise a $5,000 specimen of spasmodic liberality one moment, while voting against a $2,000 item for twenty page boys the day previous. It is of the same pattern as Comptroller Hopkins' delusive notions and system of economy in many things. He, too, accepts a $1,000 item, in addition to his salary, for ostensibly performing service as a commissioner to fix the exterior bulkhead and piers in New York harbor. The fact is that he don't do an hour's work in that direction. Such men ought not be too severe on page boys. There was a sort of private caucus among some of the New York magnates here to-day over the subject of that proposed Metropolitan Police bill, but I have not learned what, if any, determination was arrived at.

Van Nort's Riverside Park or avenue job being dead, the Park Commissioners are pushing ahead to secure the control of those avenues. Before, or about the time of the election of Mr. Gilmour as Superintendent of Public Instruction it was rumored that he would favor the bill to place his office, and therefore himself, under the control of the Regents of the University. The Senate passed the bill, and the House kicked, but it was given out that the House would take the back track, especially if the party elected Superintendent would say, amen. This Mr. Gilmour refuses to do, very naturally, now that he is in office. No man cares to be curtailed in his power after a successful canvass. I agree with Smith Weed, that this sudden proposed change threatens grave consequences. It is well-known that the Regents are fossils; having no heart in common with those who watch over and guard our common school interests. The Regents are too aristocratic.

There was a renewal of the old fight in the House to-day over that "academic item" of $250,000 contained in the appropriation bill, as reported to the House. It will be remembered that Warner Miller made a heroic fight against this item, and succeeded in having it struck out. The Professors and D. D.'s felt sore, and they went to the Senate to get it reinstated, and after a severe tug succeeded.

When the bill came up in the House yesterday, the old fight broke out anew, and after debate the final vote was ordered taken at 12 o'clock to-day, and it was so taken and the item was again struck out by a vote of 66 to 53, your entire delegation voting with the majority. Senator Connolly, it will be remembered, favored the item when the bill was under consideration in the Senate. Of course this action in the House and the election of Gilmour, were two large feathers in Mr. Miller's hat, and he wears the honors of victory with becoming modesty and independence. This action of the House will call for a joint Conference Committee and Miller ought to be on it. Mr. Snyder, I hear it said, is not "run" by a certain select coterie of men in Saugerties on this or any other question. He stands by the tax-payers and common schools. Good for Snyder. Speaking of Saugerties' favorite ferryman, there was a little tableau in the House on Tuesday night last in which he figured.—Waehner, the juvenile Daniel Webster of the House, got angry, it seems, over the delay of the House Commerce and Navigation Committee to report a bill affecting the New York Commissioners of Emigration. And the juvenile Daniel moved to discharge the committee from its further consideration in order to get it before the House. Now Snyder is on that important committee, and he didn't like this move on the chess-board a bit, especially as the commissioners were to be heard on it next day. After some sharp talk between Waehner and Biglin, the Chairman of said committee, Snyder, put in a piece of strategy, moving to lay the motion on the table, which prevailed by a good majority. A more furious man than the aforesaid juvenile "Daniel" you never saw. First blood for Snyder. It was a beautiful counter on the deep base vocal agent of articulation possessed by Waehner. Mr. Snyder will take his Saugerties Fire Department bill down this week, signed by the Governor.

There was a "red hot" time on the floor of the House on Wednesday evening, which came near resulting in a passage at arms between Messrs. Beebe and Batcheller. The Governor's message on "Inflation" and Weed's resolutions having been referred to the Ways and Means Committee, and that committee having made a report thereon, Weed proceeded to say just enough to fire the "patriotic" Batcheller, who began to denounce the "confederate scrip Democracy," and by indulging very liberally in like expressions he chanced to touch "the Sage of Monticello" where he was most sensitive. Beebe sat opposite Batcheller, and ere the latter sat down Beebe's hair was seen to rise on end "like quills on the fretful porcupine." When Batcheller took his seat, Beebe took the floor and proceeded to dress out the Fourth of July patriot, the sutler general, and so warmed up to his work that Batcheller grew indignant and became angry. Things grew warm, and it became evident that a scene was almost inevitable, Beebe meanwhile lashing his antagonist without mercy. When all had concluded and the House adjourned a ring was formed about the gladiators, who shook fists and passed some very uncomplimentary remarks.

Senator Connelly has introduced the following bill:

"AN ACT To incorporate the Ulster Seminary."

SECTION 1. Andrew McIntyre, of the village of Ellenville, in the town of Wawarsing and county of Ulster, is hereby declared and constituted a corporation with succession, by his executors or trustees, to be duly appointed by his last will and testament, by the name and style of the Ulster Seminary, in Ellenville aforesaid, for the purpose of establishing, maintaining and conducting a seminary of education.

§ 2. The corporation hereby created shall possess the powers and be subject to the provisions contained in the fourth article of first title of the fifteenth chapter, and the third title of the eighteenth chapter of the first part of the revised statutes, so far as the same are applicable, and so far as is consistent with the constitution.

§ 3. The said corporation shall be entitled to its share of the literature fund or the income thereof, whenever it shall have complied with the fiscal and other requisite conditions which would authorize the Regents of the University to incorporate a select school, and shall enjoy such share so long as it in all respects, at all times, comply with such conditions.

§ 4. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to exempt the said Andrew McIntyre, and such executors or trustees, from legal liability for contracts to be made by him or them concerning the said institution, but he or they shall be legally liable for the debts of said corporation to the same extent and in the same manner as if they had acted in their individual capacity; but the real estate actually belonging to the said institution, and devoted to and used by the same to the amount of ten thousand dollars, and the personal estate belonging to the same, and devoted to and used exclusively therby, to an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars, shall stand on the same ground as to taxation as if it belonged to any ordinary academical incorporation.

This bill is the same as the original act under which Mr. McIntyre's deceased predecessor acted, substantially. But his predecessor having failed to name a successor by testamentary act as provided for in the original act of incorporation, and Mr. McIntyre having purchased the property, and desiring to carry forward this educational institution, this bill becomes necessary. The word "Female" in the name of the institution is omitted in this bill, which bill has been favorably reported.

Mr. Snyder has introduced the following bill—the third fish bill affecting Ulster that has attracted attention; one being Mr. Griffin's trout prohibitory bill, now on its death-bed probably in the Senate, the other being Senator Connelly's Wallkill Creek fish bill.

"AN ACT to prevent the taking of fish from certain parts of the waters of the Esopus Creek with any net, weir or trap of any kind, or set any trap, net, weir or pot in said part of the waters of the Esopus Creek with intent to catch fish."

SECTION 1. No person shall at any time take any fish with net, weir, or trap of any kind, or set any trap, net, weir or pot, with intent to catch fish, in that part of the waters of the Esopus Creek lying between the natural dam at a place known as Glenerie and the dam situate in the village of Saugerties. Any person violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall likewise be liable to a penalty of $25 for each offence and $10 for each fish so taken.

§ 2. Provides that the penalty to be recovered shall be recovered in a suit brought by the Game Constable of Saugerties, in same manner as is provided for in Section 31 of Chapter 721 of the Game Laws of 1871.

Dr. Winter has been in town; also, J. M. Osterhout of Rochester, D. C. Overbaugh and Mr. Luke Noone of Kingston. Mr. Snyder's Hirsch Benevolent Association bill stands a slim chance. It has gone to the Committee on Local and Special Laws. CYRUS.

—It is estimated that there are 800,000 life insurance policyholders in this country, the amount they are insured for being equal to the national debt. By killing them all off and making away with their relatives perhaps we could cancel our obligations and resume at once. Congressmen should consider this.—Boston Post.

TELEGRAPH.

REGULAR DISPATCHES TO DAILY FREEMAN

FOREIGN.

GERMANY.

A Compromise on the Army Bill.

BERLIN, April 10.—A compromise has been effected on the military bill by which the most serious obstacles to its passage are removed. The government has accepted an amendment proposed by the Liberal members of the Reichstag limiting the total strength of the army to, 401,000 men and the period of service to seven years.

BISMARCK'S BACK UP.

LONDON, April 10.—A Berlin dispatch to the Daily News says Prince Bismarck distinctly warned several Liberal deputies who called upon him yesterday that he would resign in favor of Gen. Manteuffel unless the military question was settled. The Liberals afterwards unanimously agreed to the compromise previously reported. Bismarck's condition is improving.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Dr. Livingstone's Funeral.

LONDON, April 11—5 A. M.—The funeral of Dr. Livingstone will take place on the 18th.

An appeal signed by Baroness Burdett-Coutts, Messrs. Kinnaird and Horace Wallar, Sir Bartle Frere and others asks for subscriptions for the support of the children and two aged sisters of the deceased, who are in straitened circumstances.

GREAT LOCK-OUT IMPENDING.

LONDON, April 11—6 A. M.—The operatives in a cotton mill at Bolton having struck the Association of Master Cotton Spinners has resolved that unless they yield before Thursday next notice will be given that in a fortnight from that date all the mills in that city will be closed and thus 15,000 operatives locked out.

DEATH OF A MARQUIS.

The Marquis of Clanricarde died yesterday, aged 72 years.

THE INDIAN FAMINE.

LONDON, April 11.—A special telegram from Calcutta to the Standard reports that the famine is everywhere under control. The accumulations of provisions made by the government are more than sufficient to meet the demand, and further aid subscriptions in England are considered superfluous.

ANOTHER CUBAN SCRAPE.

An ex-United States Collector in Trouble.

KEY WEST, April 10.—A letter from Havana says F. A. Dockery, formerly United States Collector at Jacksonville, Fla., is under arrest at Nuevitas and his trial is progressing, charged with communicating with Cuban insurgents. Papers compromising him were found on his person. If convicted he will probably be executed.

A FIERCE GALE.

Damage to Shipping.

HALIFAX, April 10.—A squall lasting half an hour caused considerable damage to shipping in port to-day. Several vessels broke from their anchorage and were driven against the wharves and other vessels. It is feared the gale has been disastrous to shipping on the coast.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

A dispatch from St. Johns says by an accident to the steamer Tigress while in the ice hunting for seals twenty-two men lost their lives.

CANADA.

A Royal Captain General in Prospective.

TORONTO, April 10.—A rumor has been in circulation for some time that at the expiration of Lord Dufferin's term of office as Governor General of Canada the Duke of Edinburgh would be appointed to succeed him. The Globe to-day winds up a long editorial on the subject thus: "From whatever point of view we approach the proposal of making the Duke of Edinburgh Governor General of Canada we see difficulties, and difficulties of such magnitude that with regret we have to place the attractive notion of being governed for four years by a royal duke among the catagory of impracticable things."

COURT OF APPEALS.

Calendar for To-Day.

ALBANY, April 10.—The following is the Court of Appeals calendar for April 13th: Nos. 182, 251, 305, 172, 158, 181, 152, 190.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

One Man Killed.

NEW YORK, April 10.—A trestle gave way on the Cairo & Fulton Railroad near Little Rock, throwing the engine and baggage car of the express train into the river, killing the engineer, named Frank Johnson. Express matter and mails were washed away by the water.

CANAL NAVIGATION.

To Commence the First of May.

ALBANY, April 10.—The canals will be opened about the first of May from present indications. It will be some days yet before the time will be definitely fixed.

THE GALLOWS.

Hanging of Prague Bryant.

NASHVILLE, April 10.—Prague Bryant was hanged at Pulaski, Tennessee, to-day for the murder of Alexander Steel. He spent some time singing, praying and exhorting the crowd, and as usual announced that he was going straight to Heaven. His neck was not broken by the fall of four feet and six minutes after the drop fell he drew a long breath and struggled convulsively. The body hung over an hour before it was taken down.

METROPOLITAN NEWS.

Suing a Police Captain.

NEW YORK, April 10.—Thomas Gill has commenced an action against Captain Williams of the Eighth Precinct police, laying damages at $10,000, for an alleged brutal assault on 31st of March.

A NOTED BASE BALLIST DEAD.

Charles Mills, the noted catcher of the Mutual and other ball clubs, died last evening of consumption, in his thirtieth year.

A MAN WITH FRIENDS.

The friends of Rev. J. T. Kendrick, Methodist, of Brooklyn, found guilty of intemperance by a church committee appointed to investigate the charge, express a determination to adhere to him, even if they have to withdraw from the church and conference.

TWEED'S ACCOMMODATIONS.

In his official reply to Police Commissioner Laimbeer regarding the treatment of Tweed, Commissioner Stern says that in looking into his cell one day last November he saw Tweed stretched out upon a bare cot apparently panting for breath and air. He was convinced he would not have lived forty-eight hours longer in that place. He accordingly had him removed to a secure cell on the second floor, not with royal appointments as had been charged, but with the simplest, plainest furniture. He (Stern) did not believe in making a hero of Tweed and placing a crown of martyrdom upon that very class of persons which the law intended to degrade. After the reading of the report the Commissioners voted to make the place more secure, with an iron gate and lattice work.

DEATH OF A MEMBER OF ASSEMBLY.

Another Dying.

ALBANY, April 10.—W. R. Knapp, member of Assembly from Rockland county, died last night at his home of consumption. Assemblyman Blessing of New York is lying at the point of death.

RHODE ISLAND'S ELECTION.

A Second Trial and the Result.

PROVIDENCE, April 10.—The second trial to elect a Senator and six Representatives took place in this city to-day and resulted in the choice of Edwin Metcalf as Senator by 264 majority over Samuel Currey. Currey was supported by the friends of Gen. Burnside for United States Senator and Metcalf by the prohibitionists and opponents of Gen. Burnside. Three representatives on the ticket with Metcalf were elected. There was no choice for three.

THE TENNESSEE SHOOTING.

A Later Report of the Affair.

NASHVILLE, April 10.—A dispatch from Lebanon, Tennessee, says young Breckenridge, son of the late Dr. Robert J. Breckenridge, was shot by John L. Anderson, son of Dr. J. M. Anderson, Mayor of Lebanon. The difficulty originated from some trivial matter. Breckenridge survived but a few hours. Anderson's connections in Tennessee are as prominent as those of the unfortunate victim in Kentucky. It is reported that Anderson escaped.

THE PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY.

A Bogus Call.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 10.—At a meeting of the Grange Committee this morning resolutions were adopted declaring that the call issued yesterday by a portion of the members of that organization for a farmers' convention in this city on the 10th of June was unauthorized by any action of the Committee of Patrons of Husbandry.

SUMNER'S SUCCESSOR.

Another Fruitless Ballot.

BOSTON, April 10.—The twentieth ballot in joint convention to-day was as follows:

Dawes,	83
Hoar,	66
Curtis,	72
Adams,	13
Bullock,	12
Sanford,	7
Washburn,	3
Banks,	8

Messrs. Whittier, G. F. Hoar, Reuben Noble and Mrs. Mary A. Livermore received each one vote. Discussion ensued.

EXECUTION OF LOWENSTEIN.

He Protests His Innocence to the Last.

ALBANY, April 10.—The execution of Lowenstein took place shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon. The doomed man slept from 3 o'clock this morning till 5, and at that hour arose, dressed himself carefully and had prayer with the priest who remained with him till that hour. At 7 o'clock Mrs. Lowenstein came to the jail and stayed with him till 3:30, when an affecting leave taking was had, Lowenstein's last words to her being, "Hannah, I die an innocent man." His wife was completely prostrated, and had to be assisted to a carriage and taken home. At half-past twelve the military, four companies, with muffled drums, arrived, and surrounding the jail, kept back the crowd. Phelps, the state treasury defaulter, saw Lowenstein this morning by request, and almost fainted when bidding him good-bye. At one o'clock a magnificent cross and wreath of flowers came for Lowenstein, a present from Father Newlan, the priest. The condemned, though broken down yesterday, was perfectly calm and civil to-day, remaining so until reaching the gallows.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Proposed Consular Changes.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The House Committee on Foreign Relations to-day concluded the consideration of the bill revising the grades and salaries of Consuls and Consul Generals. The most important amendment made by the committee is to establish the office of Consul General at Berlin, Melbourne and the city of Mexico, and at the request of the Hebrew convention recently held at Chicago the committee recommend the establishment of a consulate at Bucharest, Roumania. As thus amended Chairman Orth will report the bill for passage.

AN AGASSIZ MEDAL.

The government is having prepared at the Philadelphia mint, to be added to the list of public medals, a medal commemorative of the late Professor Agassiz and his devotion to and achievements in science

CONFIRMATIONS BY THE SENANE.

The Senate has confirmed the nominations of Benjamin P. Avery as Minister to China, Wm. Hollands Postmaster at West Troy and Edward B. Stevens Postmaster at Binghamton, N. Y.

A MARINE LAW.

Both houses have passed the bill providing that the act of 1793 for enrolling and licensing vessels employed in the coasting trade shall not be construed as extending to canal boats or boats employed on the internal waters or canals of any state.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

ALBANY, April 10.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

To abolish the office of Canal Suprintendent and give additional powers to the Canal Commissioners—68 to 36.

REPORTS.

Mr. ROBERTSON, adversely to amending and simplifying section 121 of the Code of Procedure. Report agreed to.

Adversely to amending the Code of Procedure. Report agreed to.

Adversely to amending section 11, subdivision 3 of the Code of Procedure. Report agreed to.

Adversely to amending the revised statutes and the Code of Procedure in relation to courts of justices of the peace. Report agreed to.

Adversely to amending act simplifying and abridging the practices of the courts of this state. Report agreed to.

Adversely to providing for the recovery by reason of defective highways, bridges, public streets and structures thereon. Report agreed to.

Amending act simplifying and abridging the practice, pleading and proceedings of the courts of this state.

EVENING SESSION.

President ROBINSON laid before the Senate a long memorial from Dr. Swinburne, formerly Health Officer of the port of New York, asking to be reimbursed in the sum of $90,000 for expenditures while Health Officer. He says the state is indebted to him $240,000, but only claims $90,000.

The Senate in Committee of the Whole considered the following bills:

Relative to Wall street gambling. Third reading.

To amend the statutes relative to recovery of lands. Third reading.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

By Mr. JACOBS, relative to state prisons. Similar to Assembly bill No. 562.

By Mr. GANSON, to release the interest of the state in lands to Agnes Spark and Robert McKay of Genessee county.

Adjourned.

ASSEMBLY.

DEATH OF HON. WM. R. KNAPP.

The SPEAKER stated that it was his painful duty to announce that Hon. Wm. R. Knapp, member of Assembly from Rockland county, died last night, at his residence in Haverstraw.

Mr. WIGHT moved the appointment of a committee of five to prepare resolutions of respect to the memory of deceased. Carried.

The SPEAKER appointed the following committee: Messrs. Wight, Farrar, Hillyer, Hazleton and Hammond.

The SPEAKER also announced that the funeral of the deceased would take place at Stony Point on Monday morning at half-past ten o'clock.

THE STREET-CLEANING INVESTIGATION.

Mr. EASTMAN, from the Committee on Cities, submitted reports on the investigation of the management of the Street Cleaning Department of New York city. They find that the expense of the bureau during 1873 amounted to $1,095,000, while the condition of the streets did not warrant that expenditure; that the police are negligent, as are the heads of the bureaus and subordinates; that blackmailing by persons in the employ of the bureau has been resorted to; that the efficiency of the department is crippled by influential persons demanding employment for incompetent persons; and that the police have failed as laborers.

The committee conclude that the work should no longer be continued in the Police Department, but they are unable to determine in what department to lodge it. Therefore they decided that it must continue with the police, though they think a separate board should have charge of it. The Chairman of the committee recommends certain provisions for a more systematic organization for the purpose.

The report was laid on the table and ordered printed.

REPORTS.

Mr. PRINCE, for payment of fees of sheriffs for the confinement of prisoners on civil process.

Also, amending act to simplify and abridge the pleadings, practice and proceedings of the courts of this state.

Also, adversely, to incorporate the council of law reporting. [Agreed to.

Also, adversely, in relation to evidence in certain cases and for other purposes. [Agreed to.

Also, adversely, in relation to the district courts and the justices thereof in New York. [Agreed to.

EVENING SESSION.

The House re-assembled at 7:30 and the following bills considered in Committee of the Whole were ordered to a third reading, unless atherwise ordered:

Amending act providing for the incorporation of fire insurance companies.

To provide for the appraisal of canal claims. Rejected on account of technical objections.

Adjourned.

UNITED STATES CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 10.

The Senate resumed consideration of the bill to provide for the incorporation and regulation of railroad companies in the territories of the United States.

Pending discussion the Senate went into executive session and soon after adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.

In explaining the reasons why he called up his motion to reconsider the vote of yesterday postponing the currency bill, Mr. BUTLER said his object was first to have the Senate bill passed without an amendment, and then, when that relief was secured, to go on and perfect the currency bill reported by the Banking Committee. He intimated his belief that the President would not veto a bill which would legalize his own action. He wanted the Senate bill passed to-day for the relief of the public mind and for the relief of the business of the country, and then he would go in for perfecting the House bill.

Mr. KELLOGG of Connecticut asked Butler whether he had understood him to say that the President would not veto the Senate bill.

The SPEAKER, interrupting—That is an improper question, never to be discussed.

Mr. KELLOGG—That is precisely why I ask the question.

The SPEAKER—The Chair did not observe the gentleman from Massachusetts use the phrase or he would have stopped him. It is an invasion of the dignity and rights of the House of Representatives to allude to the possibility of the President vetoing a bill.

Mr. BUTLER—I was dealing with what I saw in the newspapers, and I beg the pardon of the House for doing so (laughter), and not with any other view. I want the matter brought forward so that the newspaper slander, as I believe it, on the executive, charging him to be an obstructionist to the prosperity of the country, may be removed. That is all. I only mentioned it in a negative sense, not in a positive sense.

Mr. DAWES—I would like to know whether it is more parliamentary to allude to it in a negative sense than in a positive sense.

The SPEAKER—The Chair thinks not.

Mr. BUTLER—I stand under correction. It is not parliamentary, then, to say that I do not think a man will do a foolish thing.

Mr. COX of New York—The gentleman from Massachusetts has already thrown to the House the opinions of the executive.

Mr. BUTLER—I have not.

Mr. COX—I think he owes it to the House o state his authority.

The SPEAKER—The Chair cannot allow that to be discussed.

Mr. COX—It has already been discussed.

Mr. BUTLER—I have said to the contrary, and if the gentleman's ears had been as acute as they are long he would have understood me. (Laughter.)

Mr. COX—The gentleman ought to have long ears, for he is the organ of this administration.

After further discussion in the same vein the House commenced to vote.

The first vote was on Butler's motion to lay on the table the motion to reconsider the postponement vote, and it was defeated by the casting vote of the Speaker. Amid great excitement the vote was announced as yeas 126, nays 126, whereupon the Speaker voted no. The question was then taken on reconsidering the postponement vote, and it was reconsidered—yeas 128, nays 120. The vote then came back on the motion to postpone and it was rejected on a vote by tellers—79 to 106.

The bill was then brought again before the House for action.

Mr. MAYNARD proposed to re-open debate in order to let Dawes speak on the bill, but objection was made, the previous question was moved and seconded on all pending amendments and the House proceeded to vote upon them in their order.

The first vote was on the amendment offered by Mitchell of Wisconsin, a member of the Banking Committee.

The next vote was on the amendment offered by Biery of Pennsylvania to strike out sections 7 and 8 of the bill. Rejected without the yeas and nays.

The next vote was on the amendment offered by Farwell of Illinois, a member of the Banking Committee, to insert an additional section to Merriam's substitute restricting sinking fund purchases to the non-interest-bearing debt of the United States, such representatives of debt to be cancelled when purchased. Rejected—yeas 72, nays 104.

The next vote was on the substitute of Merriam, of the Banking Committee. Rejected without the yeas and nays, the vote by tellers being 67 to 89.

Mr. MAYNARD of Tennessee then moved to strike out the seventh section of the bill, which allows banks to be organized without circulation. The section was struck out without the yeas and nays.

Mr. BIERY of Pennsylvania then moved to strike out the eighth section, which provides for the monthly issue of $2,000,000 in gold notes as a substitute for that amount of legal tender notes to be cancelled and destroyed and not re-issued. Carried—yeas 149, nays 95.

Mr. NEGLEY then offered an additional section limiting the amount of United States notes in circulation to $400,000,000 and providing for their convertibility into 3.65 per cent. bonds.

Mr. KELLY moved his 3.65 proposition as a substitute for Negley's.

The previous question was then seconded on Negley's and Kelly's amendmentt. Kelly's amendment was substituted for Negley's and then a vote was taken on inserting Kelley's amendment in the bill. Rejected—yeas 118, nays 122.

There was a great deal of excitement attending this vote, as it was very close and several members at the extreme moment changed votes.

A motion to adjourn over til Monday was defeated—yeas 102, nays 123.

After a great deal of time spent over the parliamentary snarl the House at five minutes past six adjourned.

The currency bill comes up to-morrow at 1:30 A. M. to-morrow, with the seventh and eighth sections struck out.

THE WEATHER.

To-Day's Probabilities.

Over the Eastern and Middle States clear weather and rising temperature will prevail, with northwest to southwest winds in the former but southwest and south in the latter.

STOCK and MONEY MARKET.

NEW YORK, April 10.

Treasury disbursements $27,000. Customs receipts $411,000. Dry goods imports for the week $3,060,909. Money took a flurry this morning, advanced to 7 per cent. on call, but closed 3@4. Sterling quiet; $4.85 for 60 days, $4.88 for sight. Go'd ranged 113⅛@¾; closed 113½. Carrying rates 2@4, closing 2. Clearings $27,000,000. State bonds quiet and nominal. Governments quiet. Stocks opened firm, fluctuated somewhat during the day, with a general downward tendency, but at the final close the general market was ⅛@⅜ above the lowest prices of the day. St. Louis and Iron Mountain was the exception and advanced from 38⅞ to 45. Erie showed a recovery of ⅜ and St. Joseph 1½ from the lowest point.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—S. O. Taylor of Brooklyn was the recipient of a testimonial on Monday night as the oldest living organist. He is blind and 95 years old.

—"Burleigh" writes to the Boston Journal that a new church for Mr. Beecher has been definitely decided on. It is to cost, with the land, $400,000, and to seat 6,000 people.

—The character of Ohio journalism is shown by the remark of the editor of the Springfield Leader, that the editor of the Xenia Gazette "is a natural-born, Christian liar."

—It is said that ice sixteen inches thick and excellent in quality is still being taken from Oneida Lake in large quantities. At North Bay three hundred car loads will be secured for shipment to Ohio.

The Daily Freeman.

Kingston, Saturday Morning, April 11.

The speakers at the anniversary of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Church were quite plain in their remarks. Rev. J. M. Buckley said education without virtue is productive of more harm than good, and cited Ben. Butler. Dr. Hatfield condemned the carpet-baggers and adventurers who had control of the South, and said the country would be financially ruined if purer counsels did not prevail. He also reminded Grant he was elected by the Republican party. We don't know as it affects Grant's feelings much, but this continual reminder of the fact is becoming cruelly irritating to the party.

The Tribune's Birthday.

We were right glad to read The Tribune's editorial announcement of its thirty-fourth birthday. We always sympathize with any person or paper which is persecuted for opinion sake, and the assurance of their success in resisting such raids is a very valuable indication that the public are daily growing more sensible of the worth and rights of opinion. We carry our convictions so far in this line that we even sympathize with the Times in its prospective trouble in the shape of a new Republican organ, of whose establishment there are rumors once in a while. The Times has been very exultant at what it supposed was a triumphant crusade against a competitor, and its chief stock in trade was the unsatisfactory opinions of its rival. The Times was helped in its raid by a display of administrative sympathy through the practical channel of postoffices and the like seldom withessed, but we hope the same force cannot be developed in diminishing the list of the Times as was used in swelling it.

It is certainly gratifying to know that the withheld dividends of The Tribune are only withheld because they are invested as fast as earned in its valuable real estate in Printing House Square. Its business is constantly growing too, and it claims with what appear to be substantial grounds that it has the largest circulation of any four-cent daily in the metropolis, and comes next to the Herald in the size of its city circulation. All this is better still because it deserves it all; for it is without doubt the best daily paper on the continent—perhaps we should say in the world.

Bergh Burlesqued, but Still Busy.

The merry wits who frequent legislative halls have been getting up a burlesque on Bergh's laws for the betterment of the condition of animals. Like all reforms, there is a chance on the edges for keen wits to make considerable fun in the line of reducing the thing to an absurdity. The "Act for the protection of life" and prevention of cruelty to animals is decidedly funny. It solemnly enacts that any person shall be imprisoned a year who kills "any animal, vertebrate or invertebrate, winged, finned or scaled, centipede, octoped, sexiped, quadruped or biped," and gives him six months for any wound, puncture or perforation of any living thing. When this is done by persons under twelve years of age they are to receive twenty-five lashes with a leather strap or pickled rod. It is not considered a valid excuse that the animal is used for human food, it only being legal to eat such animals as have died a natural death. The penalties in the case of oysters are gradated as follows: On the half-shell, two months; stewed, three months; Boston stewed, four months; fried, six months; roast, eight months; broiled, ten months; roast in the shell, twelve months. These degrees of punishment are arranged with a proper appreciation of the relative enormity. Any person mutilating any animal, such as cutting the ears of dogs, is made subject to the lex talionis.

While the wits are thus making sport of the "Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals," its noble President has been doing a very worthy deed in rescuing a little girl from the brutal treatment of a man and woman named Connolly, who seem to have treated the poor child as a slave. The little girl was prematurely old, and had never been petted nor taken on a mother's lap, had never seen any stockings, and was creased with whippings and seamed with scars. In this case Mr. Bergh has stepped forward and done the unpleasant work of others. Each community has scores of voluble champions of humanity, who always wait for Mr. Bergh's kind to do the disagreeable and responsible work; but it is plainly to be seen that Mr. Bergh has a broad humanity that is not exhausted by his efforts in behalf of the brute creation.

The Protest of a True Artist.

Charlotte Cushman, the veteran actress, has done a brave deed for her profession, but one very much needed, in declining to serve gratuitously at a charity entertainment in Washington. It required some bravery to write the refusal, as the dramatic profession doesn't receive much charity in the interpretation of its motives by those who mix most largely in these benevolent enterprises or are most conspicuous in managing them. Failure on their part to do all that is asked of them in this respect, is invariably attributed to lack of sympathy with the cause.

Charitable committees seem to think all that artists give them in professional service costs them next to nothing, as it involves no actual outlay of money. "They only give their time, and what are a few hours' time for so good a cause?" say the committeemen. Miss Cushman shows that the artist of as great eminence as herself in her profession actually gives from $400 to $500 each night he or she performs at a charitable entertainment without charge. The public think they are straining themselves greatly and exhibiting extraordinary regard for the recipients of their dole when they buy a ticket at the munificent sum of from one to five dollars, while the artist who gives her night, for which she can command $500, is only credited for showing good-will, and yet she really returns in value received to each one the full amount they expended to hear her. The suggestion dropped by Miss Cushman, in concluding her letter, is very practical. The household visitation for funds, as well as for information regarding the necessities of the neighborhood, is probably the most efficient and at the same time most economical means of reaching the poor. The most perfect plan is that in use in a city in Germany whose name we do not now recall, where all persons desiring to contribute to the necessities of the poor have entire charge of those in their immediate neighborhood, applying the funds just where they will do the most good, and at the same time preventing all imposition. It will be a good thing if Miss Cushman's earnest and sensible words go farther than effecting their immediate object, and help churches and kindred organizations abolish the entire system of raising funds by fairs, festivals or concerts. There is but little of the real principle of giving in requiring a portion of your money back in the shape of music or pincushions, prize cake or strawberries.

A Sensible Minister.

Rev. W. H. H. Murray, of Adiroandack, may be a very sensational man, but he has a broad stratum of common-sense in him, with the equally desirable quality of tossing chunks of it to his congregation and the outside world with the greatest freedom. The men who will take the responsibility of saying to people what noboby else has ever said to them before, especially if they are church people, are heroes of an uncommon degree of moral courage, and much more rare than the Christian charity of which Hood bewailed.

Mr. Murray asked for an associate pastor, but the congregation rather demurred, whereupon he tells them if the lack of funds is the difficulty they need not pay himself any salary until the finances of the church will fully stand it. He certainly evinces his earnestness by making the offer, and at the same time has sense of its importance.

It is rather strange that with all the attention devoted to the machinery of churches there is but one church that seizes the real key to success in the matter of pastors. The Catholic church has a regular order of preachers, and wherever the church is at all numerous the pastor has an assistant, and where the pastoral work is not kept almost distinct from the preachers it is at least divided to such an extent that it does not interfere with the preacher's hours for study and preparation. There is scarcely a church in any but the largest cities but expects a miracle, and the fact that miracles cannot conveniently be wrought every day accounts for the lack of vigor so painfully manifest in so many of these organizations. The cases are very rare in which a preacher of more than average ability is at all successful in a social way; while the astor who mingles most freely and constantly among his people, is the most tender sympathizer in their sorrows, adviser in their troubles, and confidant for their most sacred thoughts, rarely reaches above mediocrity in the pulpit. The very tendency of mind that makes the one tends to unfit him for the other. The good sermon that lasts more than an hour in the memory of the hearer, must be hammered out in the study; but every hour spent there is begrudged by a people clamorous for pastoral visits, so that even if a man is genius enough to do both kinds of work well he finds them tugging in opposite directions and mutually destructive of each other. The man who gives two sermons a Sunday that five hundred people care to listen to or from which they can derive profit, must pound away at them every day in the week, and when he has prepared and delivered them he has done all the literary work one man ought to do in a week. The fact that the good preacher don't do more pastoral work or the good pastor more able preaching, is, however, always put to his discredit as something he won't and not as something he can't do; and so we have an unending succession of unsatisfactory pastorates simply because churches won't use a little common-sense. The way out of the difficulty is the one proposed by Adirondack Murray, which every church should adopt unless financially unable.

CURRENT TOPICS.

—What a "mighty foine country" would this be with no rum and compulsory education.

—It seems to be generally concluded that the President will veto inflation, for which he should have a vote of thanks.

—They do the thing up pretty unanimously in Rhode Island. In ten towns the Republican candidate for Governor got every vote in the ballot-box.

—Thurlow Weed thinks the strength of the Temperance cause is in moral suasion, especially when it has the force of the present movement.

—The Brooklyn Eagle suggests P. T. Barnum for Secretary of the Treasury. This is too much of an improvement on Richardson to take at one jump.

—The Freeman's Journal says no good Catholic can join the Grangers. As it is a secret society it is emphatically prohibited by Apostolic Constitutions.

—Secretary Richardson had better resign. He must go out anyway, and it would be better not to be kicked out. If he does not get out soon he may be impeached.

—The Hartford Times, the local Democratic organ, says it's all nonsense to call it a Democratic victory. "It was a great popular uprising against Grantism."

—That Providence Bank of Commerce man has come to his senses, and withdrawn proings in the Sprague bankruptcy suit. He had a narrow escape from making a complete ass of himself.

—There has been talk of starting another Republican organ at New York. Congressman Platt is talked of for editor. He can write more frankly than any man in the country.

—The leading Democratic paper of the Mississippi Valley laughs at ten Democrats of Missouri who publicly say the party still lives, and the leading Democratic paper in the northwest calls them idiots.

—Gov. Dix's appointment of Francis S. Thayer as Canal Auditor is widely commended. Indeed, so far Gov. Dix's official acts all meet with the warmest approval, and especially his message on inflation.

—Nothing but the prompt impeachment of Old Prob. will bring peace to this distracted country. Buffalo cut 12-inch ice from Lake Erie on Wednesday. If the ice companies are going to harvest their crop in summer, pray when are they going to sell it?

—The Catholic Union is very strongly of the opinion that Catholics in penal institutions do not have their rights, and sounds the first notes of a war that shall not end until no Catholic prisoner shall be deprived of instruction according to his faith.

—Napoleon Bonaparte's dispatch from the spirit world that France will never be satisfied with any but a Napoleon so long as any of that name are above ground, is just what France needed. Not knowing her own mind, such a dispatch does as satisfactorily as an egg in coffee. Now let France settle down.

OUR ALBANY CORRESPONDENCE.

ALBANY, April 9, 1874.

EDITOR FREEMAN:—We are expecting the Senate Finance Committee to report the Supply Bill to-morrow, but it may not be done until the Senate Committee gets through its new Capitol investigation, but I reckon the commission on that building is politically strong enough with both parties to hold their ground. There is one feature about this investigation that calls for comment. The committee consists of Messrs. Wood, Selkreg and Lowery—one able lawyer, and the two others sufficiently intelligent to conduct this examination without the aid of two outside counsel—who will want $1,000 each or more next year for their services in conducting this case against the Commissioners. In fact there are three lawyers besides these counsel, who are engaged by outsiders to push the investigation. Here, then, we find three lawyers, who are sufficient, but the committee adds one or two more. These are the men who will exercise a $5,000 specimen of spasmodic liberality one moment, while voting against a $2,000 item for twenty page boys the day previous. It is of the same pattern as Comptroller Hopkins' delusive notions and system of economy in many things. He, too, accepts a $1,000 item, in addition to his salary, for ostensibly performing service as a commissioner to fix the exterior bulkhead and piers in New York harbor. The fact is that he don't do an hour's work in that direction. Such men ought not be too severe on page boys. There was a sort of private caucus among some of the New York magnates here to-day over the subject of that proposed Metropolitan Police bill, but I have not learned what, if any, determination was arrived at.

Van Nort's Riverside Park or avenue job being dead, the Park Commissioners are pushing ahead to secure the control of those avenues. Before, or about the time of the election of Mr. Gilmour as Superintendent of Public Instruction it was rumored that he would favor the bill to place his office, and therefore himself, under the control of the Regents of the University. The Senate passed the bill, and the House kicked, but it was given out that the House would take the back track, especially if the party elected Superintendent would say, amen. This Mr. Gilmour refuses to do, very naturally, now that he is in office. No man cares to be curtailed in his power after a successful canvass. I agree with Smith Weed, that this sudden proposed change threatens grave consequences. It is well-known that the Regents are fossils; having no heart in common with those who watch over and guard our common school interests. The Regents are too aristocratic.

There was a renewal of the old fight in the House to-day over that "academic item" of $250,000 contained in the appropriation bill, as reported to the House. It will be remembered that Warner Miller made a heroic fight against this item, and succeeded in having it struck out. The Professors and D. D.'s felt sore, and they went to the Senate to get it reinstated, and after a severe tug succeeded.

When the bill came up in the House yesterday, the old fight broke out anew, and after debate the final vote was ordered taken at 12 o'clock to-day, and it was so taken and the item was again struck out by a vote of 66 to 53, your entire delegation voting with the majority. Senator Connolly, it will be remembered, favored the item when the bill was under consideration in the Senate. Of course this action in the House and the election of Gilmour, were two large feathers in Mr. Miller's hat, and he wears the honors of victory with becoming modesty and independence. This action of the House will call for a joint Conference Committee and Miller ought to be on it. Mr. Snyder, I hear it said, is not "run" by a certain select coterie of men in Saugerties on this or any other question. He stands by the tax-payers and common schools. Good for Snyder. Speaking of Saugerties' favorite ferryman, there was a little tableau in the House on Tuesday night last in which he figured.—Waehner, the juvenile Daniel Webster of the House, got angry, it seems, over the delay of the House Commerce and Navigation Committee to report a bill affecting the New York Commissioners of Emigration. And the juvenile Daniel moved to discharge the committee from its further consideration in order to get it before the House. Now Snyder is on that important committee, and he didn't like this move on the chess-board a bit, especially as the commissioners were to be heard on it next day. After some sharp talk between Waehner and Biglin, the Chairman of said committee, Snyder, put in a piece of strategy, moving to lay the motion on the table, which prevailed by a good majority. A more furious man than the aforesaid juvenile "Daniel" you never saw. First blood for Snyder. It was a beautiful counter on the deep base vocal agent of articulation possessed by Waehner. Mr. Snyder will take his Saugerties Fire Department bill down this week, signed by the Governor.

There was a "red hot" time on the floor of the House on Wednesday evening, which came near resulting in a passage at arms between Messrs. Beebe and Batcheller. The Governor's message on "Inflation" and Weed's resolutions having been referred to the Ways and Means Committee, and that committee having made a report thereon, Weed proceeded to say just enough to fire the "patriotic" Batcheller, who began to denounce the "confederate scrip Democracy," and by indulging very liberally in like expressions he chanced to touch "the Sage of Monticello" where he was most sensitive. Beebe sat opposite Batcheller, and ere the latter sat down Beebe's hair was seen to rise on end "like quills on the fretful porcupine." When Batcheller took his seat, Beebe took the floor and proceeded to dress out the Fourth of July patriot, the sutler general, and so warmed up to his work that Batcheller grew indignant and became angry. Things grew warm, and it became evident that a scene was almost inevitable, Beebe meanwhile lashing his antagonist without mercy. When all had concluded and the House adjourned a ring was formed about the gladiators, who shook fists and passed some very uncomplimentary remarks.

Senator Connelly has introduced the following bill:

"AN ACT To incorporate the Ulster Seminary."

SECTION 1. Andrew McIntyre, of the village of Ellenville, in the town of Wawarsing and county of Ulster, is hereby declared and constituted a corporation with succession, by his executors or trustees, to be duly appointed by his last will and testament, by the name and style of the Ulster Seminary, in Ellenville aforesaid, for the purpose of establishing, maintaining and conducting a seminary of education.

§ 2. The corporation hereby created shall possess the powers and be subject to the provisions contained in the fourth article of first title of the fifteenth chapter, and the third title of the eighteenth chapter of the first part of the revised statutes, so far as the same are applicable, and so far as is consistent with the constitution.

§ 3. The said corporation shall be entitled to its share of the literature fund or the income thereof, whenever it shall have complied with the fiscal and other requisite conditions which would authorize the Regents of the University to incorporate a select school, and shall enjoy such share so long as it in all respects, at all times, comply with such conditions.

§ 4. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to exempt the said Andrew McIntyre, and such executors or trustees, from legal liability for contracts to be made by him or them concerning the said institution, but he or they shall be legally liable for the debts of said corporation to the same extent and in the same manner as if they had acted in their individual capacity; but the real estate actually belonging to the said institution, and devoted to and used by the same to the amount of ten thousand dollars, and the personal estate belonging to the same, and devoted to and used exclusively therby, to an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars, shall stand on the same ground as to taxation as if it belonged to any ordinary academical incorporation.

This bill is the same as the original act under which Mr. McIntyre's deceased predecessor acted, substantially. But his predecessor having failed to name a successor by testamentary act as provided for in the original act of incorporation, and Mr. McIntyre having purchased the property, and desiring to carry forward this educational institution, this bill becomes necessary. The word "Female" in the name of the institution is omitted in this bill, which bill has been favorably reported.

Mr. Snyder has introduced the following bill—the third fish bill affecting Ulster that has attracted attention; one being Mr. Griffin's trout prohibitory bill, now on its death-bed probably in the Senate, the other being Senator Connelly's Wallkill Creek fish bill.

"AN ACT to prevent the taking of fish from certain parts of the waters of the Esopus Creek with any net, weir or trap of any kind, or set any trap, net, weir or pot in said part of the waters of the Esopus Creek with intent to catch fish."

SECTION 1. No person shall at any time take any fish with net, weir, or trap of any kind, or set any trap, net, weir or pot, with intent to catch fish, in that part of the waters of the Esopus Creek lying between the natural dam at a place known as Glenerie and the dam situate in the village of Saugerties. Any person violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall likewise be liable to a penalty of $25 for each offence and $10 for each fish so taken.

§ 2. Provides that the penalty to be recovered shall be recovered in a suit brought by the Game Constable of Saugerties, in same manner as is provided for in Section 31 of Chapter 721 of the Game Laws of 1871.

Dr. Winter has been in town; also, J. M. Osterhout of Rochester, D. C. Overbaugh and Mr. Luke Noone of Kingston. Mr. Snyder's Hirsch Benevolent Association bill stands a slim chance. It has gone to the Committee on Local and Special Laws. CYRUS.

—It is estimated that there are 800,000 life insurance policyholders in this country, the amount they are insured for being equal to the national debt. By killing them all off and making away with their relatives perhaps we could cancel our obligations and resume at once. Congressmen should consider this.—Boston Post.

TELEGRAPH.

REGULAR DISPATCHES TO DAILY FREEMAN

FOREIGN.

GERMANY.

A Compromise on the Army Bill.

BERLIN, April 10.—A compromise has been effected on the military bill by which the most serious obstacles to its passage are removed. The government has accepted an amendment proposed by the Liberal members of the Reichstag limiting the total strength of the army to, 401,000 men and the period of service to seven years.

BISMARCK'S BACK UP.

LONDON, April 10.—A Berlin dispatch to the Daily News says Prince Bismarck distinctly warned several Liberal deputies who called upon him yesterday that he would resign in favor of Gen. Manteuffel unless the military question was settled. The Liberals afterwards unanimously agreed to the compromise previously reported. Bismarck's condition is improving.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Dr. Livingstone's Funeral.

LONDON, April 11—5 A. M.—The funeral of Dr. Livingstone will take place on the 18th.

An appeal signed by Baroness Burdett-Coutts, Messrs. Kinnaird and Horace Wallar, Sir Bartle Frere and others asks for subscriptions for the support of the children and two aged sisters of the deceased, who are in straitened circumstances.

GREAT LOCK-OUT IMPENDING.

LONDON, April 11—6 A. M.—The operatives in a cotton mill at Bolton having struck the Association of Master Cotton Spinners has resolved that unless they yield before Thursday next notice will be given that in a fortnight from that date all the mills in that city will be closed and thus 15,000 operatives locked out.

DEATH OF A MARQUIS.

The Marquis of Clanricarde died yesterday, aged 72 years.

THE INDIAN FAMINE.

LONDON, April 11.—A special telegram from Calcutta to the Standard reports that the famine is everywhere under control. The accumulations of provisions made by the government are more than sufficient to meet the demand, and further aid subscriptions in England are considered superfluous.

ANOTHER CUBAN SCRAPE.

An ex-United States Collector in Trouble.

KEY WEST, April 10.—A letter from Havana says F. A. Dockery, formerly United States Collector at Jacksonville, Fla., is under arrest at Nuevitas and his trial is progressing, charged with communicating with Cuban insurgents. Papers compromising him were found on his person. If convicted he will probably be executed.

A FIERCE GALE.

Damage to Shipping.

HALIFAX, April 10.—A squall lasting half an hour caused considerable damage to shipping in port to-day. Several vessels broke from their anchorage and were driven against the wharves and other vessels. It is feared the gale has been disastrous to shipping on the coast.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

A dispatch from St. Johns says by an accident to the steamer Tigress while in the ice hunting for seals twenty-two men lost their lives.

CANADA.

A Royal Captain General in Prospective.

TORONTO, April 10.—A rumor has been in circulation for some time that at the expiration of Lord Dufferin's term of office as Governor General of Canada the Duke of Edinburgh would be appointed to succeed him. The Globe to-day winds up a long editorial on the subject thus: "From whatever point of view we approach the proposal of making the Duke of Edinburgh Governor General of Canada we see difficulties, and difficulties of such magnitude that with regret we have to place the attractive notion of being governed for four years by a royal duke among the catagory of impracticable things."

COURT OF APPEALS.

Calendar for To-Day.

ALBANY, April 10.—The following is the Court of Appeals calendar for April 13th: Nos. 182, 251, 305, 172, 158, 181, 152, 190.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

One Man Killed.

NEW YORK, April 10.—A trestle gave way on the Cairo & Fulton Railroad near Little Rock, throwing the engine and baggage car of the express train into the river, killing the engineer, named Frank Johnson. Express matter and mails were washed away by the water.

CANAL NAVIGATION.

To Commence the First of May.

ALBANY, April 10.—The canals will be opened about the first of May from present indications. It will be some days yet before the time will be definitely fixed.

THE GALLOWS.

Hanging of Prague Bryant.

NASHVILLE, April 10.—Prague Bryant was hanged at Pulaski, Tennessee, to-day for the murder of Alexander Steel. He spent some time singing, praying and exhorting the crowd, and as usual announced that he was going straight to Heaven. His neck was not broken by the fall of four feet and six minutes after the drop fell he drew a long breath and struggled convulsively. The body hung over an hour before it was taken down.

METROPOLITAN NEWS.

Suing a Police Captain.

NEW YORK, April 10.—Thomas Gill has commenced an action against Captain Williams of the Eighth Precinct police, laying damages at $10,000, for an alleged brutal assault on 31st of March.

A NOTED BASE BALLIST DEAD.

Charles Mills, the noted catcher of the Mutual and other ball clubs, died last evening of consumption, in his thirtieth year.

A MAN WITH FRIENDS.

The friends of Rev. J. T. Kendrick, Methodist, of Brooklyn, found guilty of intemperance by a church committee appointed to investigate the charge, express a determination to adhere to him, even if they have to withdraw from the church and conference.

TWEED'S ACCOMMODATIONS.

In his official reply to Police Commissioner Laimbeer regarding the treatment of Tweed, Commissioner Stern says that in looking into his cell one day last November he saw Tweed stretched out upon a bare cot apparently panting for breath and air. He was convinced he would not have lived forty-eight hours longer in that place. He accordingly had him removed to a secure cell on the second floor, not with royal appointments as had been charged, but with the simplest, plainest furniture. He (Stern) did not believe in making a hero of Tweed and placing a crown of martyrdom upon that very class of persons which the law intended to degrade. After the reading of the report the Commissioners voted to make the place more secure, with an iron gate and lattice work.

DEATH OF A MEMBER OF ASSEMBLY.

Another Dying.

ALBANY, April 10.—W. R. Knapp, member of Assembly from Rockland county, died last night at his home of consumption. Assemblyman Blessing of New York is lying at the point of death.

RHODE ISLAND'S ELECTION.

A Second Trial and the Result.

PROVIDENCE, April 10.—The second trial to elect a Senator and six Representatives took place in this city to-day and resulted in the choice of Edwin Metcalf as Senator by 264 majority over Samuel Currey. Currey was supported by the friends of Gen. Burnside for United States Senator and Metcalf by the prohibitionists and opponents of Gen. Burnside. Three representatives on the ticket with Metcalf were elected. There was no choice for three.

THE TENNESSEE SHOOTING.

A Later Report of the Affair.

NASHVILLE, April 10.—A dispatch from Lebanon, Tennessee, says young Breckenridge, son of the late Dr. Robert J. Breckenridge, was shot by John L. Anderson, son of Dr. J. M. Anderson, Mayor of Lebanon. The difficulty originated from some trivial matter. Breckenridge survived but a few hours. Anderson's connections in Tennessee are as prominent as those of the unfortunate victim in Kentucky. It is reported that Anderson escaped.

THE PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY.

A Bogus Call.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 10.—At a meeting of the Grange Committee this morning resolutions were adopted declaring that the call issued yesterday by a portion of the members of that organization for a farmers' convention in this city on the 10th of June was unauthorized by any action of the Committee of Patrons of Husbandry.

SUMNER'S SUCCESSOR.

Another Fruitless Ballot.

BOSTON, April 10.—The twentieth ballot in joint convention to-day was as follows:

Dawes	83
Hoar	66
Curtis	72
Adams	13
Bullock	12
Sanford	7
Washburn	3
Banks	8

Messrs. Whittier, G. F. Hoar, Reuben Noble and Mrs. Mary A. Livermore received each one vote. Discussion ensued.

EXECUTION OF LOWENSTEIN.

He Protests His Innocence to the Last.

ALBANY, April 10.—The execution of Lowenstein took place shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon. The doomed man slept from 3 o'clock this morning till 5, and at that hour arose, dressed himself carefully and had prayer with the priest who remained with him till that hour. At 7 o'clock Mrs. Lowenstein came to the jail and stayed with him till 3:30, when an affecting leave taking was had, Lowenstein's last words to her being, "Hannah, I die an innocent man." His wife was completely prostrated, and had to be assisted to a carriage and taken home. At half-past twelve the military, four companies, with muffled drums, arrived, and surrounding the jail, kept back the crowd. Phelps, the state treasury defaulter, saw Lowenstein this morning by request, and almost fainted when bidding him good-bye. At one o'clock a magnificent cross and wreath of flowers came for Lowenstein, a present from Father Newlan, the priest. The condemned, though broken down yesterday, was perfectly calm and civil to-day, remaining so until reaching the gallows.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Proposed Consular Changes.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The House Committee on Foreign Relations to-day concluded the consideration of the bill revising the grades and salaries of Consuls and Consul Generals. The most important amendment made by the committee is to establish the office of Consul General at Berlin, Melbourne and the city of Mexico, and at the request of the Hebrew convention recently held at Chicago the committee recommend the establishment of a consulate at Bucharest, Roumania. As thus amended Chairman Orth will report the bill for passage.

AN AGASSIZ MEDAL.

The government is having prepared at the Philadelphia mint, to be added to the list of public medals, a medal commemorative of the late Professor Agassiz and his devotion to and achievements in science

CONFIRMATIONS BY THE SENANE.

The Senate has confirmed the nominations of Benjamin P. Avery as Minister to China, Wm. Hollands Postmaster at West Troy and Edward B. Stevens Postmaster at Binghamton, N. Y.

A MARINE LAW.

Both houses have passed the bill providing that the act of 1793 for enrolling and licensing vessels employed in the coasting trade shall not be construed as extending to canal boats or boats employed on the internal waters or canals of any state.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

ALBANY, April 10.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

To abolish the office of Canal Suprintendent and give additional powers to the Canal Commissioners—68 to 36.

REPORTS.

Mr. ROBERTSON, adversely to amending and simplifying section 121 of the Code of Procedure. Report agreed to.

Adversely to amending the Code of Procedure. Report agreed to.

Adversely to amending section 11, subdivision 3 of the Code of Procedure. Report agreed to.

Adversely to amending the revised statutes and the Code of Procedure in relation to courts of justices of the peace. Report agreed to.

Adversely to amending act simplifying and abridging the practices of the courts of this state. Report agreed to.

Adversely to providing for the recovery by reason of defective highways, bridges, public streets and structures thereon. Report agreed to.

Amending act simplifying and abridging the practice, pleading and proceedings of the courts of this state.

EVENING SESSION.

President ROBINSON laid before the Senate a long memorial from Dr. Swinburne, formerly Health Officer of the port of New York, asking to be reimbursed in the sum of $90,000 for expenditures while Health Officer. He says the state is indebted to him $240,000, but only claims $90,000.

The Senate in Committee of the Whole considered the following bills:

Relative to Wall street gambling. Third reading.

To amend the statutes relative to recovery of lands. Third reading.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

By Mr. JACOBS, relative to state prisons. Similar to Assembly bill No. 562.

By Mr. GANSON, to release the interest of the state in lands to Agnes Spark and Robert McKay of Genessee county.

Adjourned.

ASSEMBLY.

DEATH OF HON. WM. R. KNAPP.

The SPEAKER stated that it was his painful duty to announce that Hon. Wm. R. Knapp, member of Assembly from Rockland county, died last night, at his residence in Haverstraw.

Mr. WIGHT moved the appointment of a committee of five to prepare resolutions of respect to the memory of deceased. Carried.

The SPEAKER appointed the following committee: Messrs. Wight, Farrar, Hillyer, Hazleton and Hammond.

The SPEAKER also announced that the funeral of the deceased would take place at Stony Point on Monday morning at half-past ten o'clock.

THE STREET-CLEANING INVESTIGATION.

Mr. EASTMAN, from the Committee on Cities, submitted reports on the investigation of the management of the Street Cleaning Department of New York city. They find that the expense of the bureau during 1873 amounted to $1,095,000, while the condition of the streets did not warrant that expenditure; that the police are negligent, as are the heads of the bureaus and subordinates; that blackmailing by persons in the employ of the bureau has been resorted to; that the efficiency of the department is crippled by influential persons demanding employment for incompetent persons; and that the police have failed as laborers.

The committee conclude that the work should no longer be continued in the Police Department, but they are unable to determine in what department to lodge it. Therefore they decided that it must continue with the police, though they think a separate board should have charge of it. The Chairman of the committee recommends certain provisions for a more systematic organization for the purpose.

The report was laid on the table and ordered printed.

REPORTS.

Mr. PRINCE, for payment of fees of sheriffs for the confinement of prisoners on civil process.

Also, amending act to simplify and abridge the pleadings, practice and proceedings of the courts of this state.

Also, adversely, to incorporate the council of law reporting. [Agreed to.

Also, adversely, in relation to evidence in certain cases and for other purposes. [Agreed to.

Also, adversely, in relation to the district courts and the justices thereof in New York. [Agreed to.

EVENING SESSION.

The House re-assembled at 7:30 and the following bills considered in Committee of the Whole were ordered to a third reading, unless atherwise ordered:

Amending act providing for the incorporation of fire insurance companies.

To provide for the appraisal of canal claims. Rejected on account of technical objections.

Adjourned.

UNITED STATES CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 10.

The Senate resumed consideration of the bill to provide for the incorporation and regulation of railroad companies in the territories of the United States.

Pending discussion the Senate went into executive session and soon after adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.

In explaining the reasons why he called up his motion to reconsider the vote of yesterday postponing the currency bill, Mr. BUTLER said his object was first to have the Senate bill passed without an amendment, and then, when that relief was secured, to go on, and perfect the currency bill reported by the Banking Committee. He intimated his belief that the President would not veto a bill which would legalize his own action. He wanted the Senate bill passed to-day for the relief of the public mind and for the relief of the business of the country, and then he would go in for perfecting the House bill.

Mr. KELLOGG of Connecticut asked Butler whether he had understood him to say that the President would not veto the Senate bill.

The SPEAKER, interrupting—That is an improper question, never to be discussed.

Mr. KELLOGG—That is precisely why I ask the question.

The SPEAKER—The Chair did not observe the gentleman from Massachusetts use the phrase or he would have stopped him. It is an invasion of the dignity and rights of the House of Representatives to allude to the possibility of the President vetoing a bill.

Mr. BUTLER—I was dealing with what I saw in the newspapers, and I beg the pardon of the House for doing so (laughter), and not with any other view. I want the matter brought forward so that the newspaper slander, as I believe it, on the executive, charging him to be an obstructionist to the prosperity of the country, may be removed. That is all. I only mentioned it in a negative sense, not in a positive sense.

Mr. DAWES—I would like to know whether it is more parliamentary to allude to it in a negative sense than in a positive sense.

The SPEAKER—The Chair thinks not.

Mr. BUTLER—I stand under correction. It is not parliamentary, then, to say that I do not think a man will do a foolish thing.

Mr. COX of New York—The gentleman from Massachusetts has already thrown to the House the opinions of the executive.

Mr. BUTLER—I have not.

Mr. COX—I think he owes it to the House o state his authority.

The SPEAKER—The Chair cannot allow that to be discussed.

Mr. COX—It has already been discussed.

Mr. BUTLER—I have said to the contrary, and if the gentleman's ears had been as acute as they are long he would have understood me. (Laughter.)

Mr. COX—The gentleman ought to have long ears, for he is the organ of this administration.

After further discussion in the same vein the House commenced to vote.

The first vote was on Butler's motion to lay on the table the motion to reconsider the postponement vote, and it was defeated by the casting vote of the Speaker. Amid great excitement the vote was announced as yeas 126, nays 126, whereupon the Speaker voted no. The question was then taken on reconsidering the postponement vote, and it was reconsidered—yeas 128, nays 120. The vote then came back on the motion to postpone and it was rejected on a vote by tellers—79 to 106.

The bill was then brought again before the House for action.

Mr. MAYNARD proposed to re-open debate in order to let Dawes speak on the bill, but objection was made, the previous question was moved and seconded on all pending amendments and the House proceeded to vote upon them in their order.

The first vote was on the amendment offered by Mitchell of Wisconsin, a member of the Banking Committee.

The next vote was on the amendment offered by Biery of Pennsylvania to strike out sections 7 and 8 of the bill. Rejected without the yeas and nays.

The next vote was on the amendment offered by Farwell of Illinois, a member of the Banking Committee, to insert an additional section to Merriam's substitute restricting sinking fund purchases to the non-interest-bearing debt of the United States, such representatives of debt to be cancelled when purchased. Rejected—yeas 72, nays 104.

The next vote was on the substitute of Merriam, of the Banking Committee. Rejected without the yeas and nays, the vote by tellers being 67 to 89.

Mr. MAYNARD of Tennessee then moved to strike out the seventh section of the bill, which allows banks to be organized without circulation. The section was struck out without the yeas and nays.

Mr. BIERY of Pennsylvania then moved to strike out the eighth section, which provides for the monthly issue of $2,000,000 in gold notes as a substitute for that amount of legal tender notes to be cancelled and destroyed and not re-issued. Carried—yeas 149, nays 95.

Mr. NEGLEY then offered an additional section limiting the amount of United States notes in circulation to $400,000,000 and providing for their convertibility into 3.65 per cent. bonds.

Mr. KELLY moved his 3.65 proposition as a substitute for Negley's.

The previous question was then seconded on Negley's and Kelly's amendmentt. Kelly's amendment was substituted for Negley's and then a vote was taken on inserting Kelley's amendment in the bill. Rejected—yeas 118, nays 122.

There was a great deal of excitement attending this vote, as it was very close and several members at the extreme moment changed votes.

A motion to adjourn over till Monday was defeated—yeas 102, nays 123.

After a great deal of time spent over the parliamentary snarl the House at five minutes past six adjourned.

The currency bill comes up to-morrow at 1:30 A. M. to-morrow, with the seventh and eighth sections struck out.

THE WEATHER.

To-Day's Probabilities.

Over the Eastern and Middle States clear weather and rising temperature will prevail, with northwest to southwest winds in the former but southwest and south in the latter.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—S. O. Taylor of Brooklyn was the recipient of a testimonial on Monday night as the oldest living organist. He is blind and 95 years old.

—"Burleigh" writes to the Boston Journal that a new church for Mr. Beecher has been definitely decided on. It is to cost, with the land, $400,000, and to seat 6,000 people.

—The character of Ohio journalism is shown by the remark of the editor of the Springfield Leader, that the editor of the Xenia Gazette "is a natural-born, Christian liar."

—It is said that ice sixteen inches thick and excellent in quality is still being taken from Oneida Lake in large quantities. At North Bay three hundred car loads will be secured for shipment to Ohio.

CITY NOTES.

—J. R. Styles has embellished his residence on East Front street with a handsome piazza.

—The hoodlums have "The Mulligan Guard" bad.

—See the advertisement, in another column, of a muff left in one of the horse cars.

—And now they won't be able to wear those spring hats to church this week.

—People who had put away their snow-shovels had to drag them forth again on Friday morning.

—Winter lingers in the lap of Spring as though he was a great deal more fond of doing that same than we are of having him.

—A number of sidewalks on the most frequented streets did not have the snow shoveled from them on Friday.

—Owing to the detention of the horse cars by the snow on Friday morning some people at the Mansion House missed the Ulster County Express.

—Rev. J. H. Lent, of the New York Conference, will occupy the pulpit of the Second M. E. Church in the upper part of the city, next Sunday morning and evening.

—On Friday one canal boat laden with one hundred and twenty-seven tons of coal reached tide water through the Delaware & Hudson canal.

—Roe, the able steward at the Mansion House, never knew what "living from hand to mouth" meant until mine host De Garmo explained it to him on Friday morning—then Roe did "laff."

—The recollections we heard recounted on Friday of famous April snow storms, if written, would make a larger volume than "What I know about farming," and about as interesting.

—The advance agent of Mc Voy's Hibernicon, with Enoch Carter's assistance, was billing this city for the appearance of that entertainment in Washington Hall, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, April 20th and 21st.

—The quantity of pea-nuts purchased in Washington Hall on the night of the Wallace sisters entertainment was only equaled by the intense satisfaction with which "fellers and their gals" consumed them while "seein' the show."

Personal.

The Rev. F. M. McAllister, formerly rector of St. John's Episcopal Church in this city, was in town on Friday.

Boats Hoffman and Mary Bennett, Chundeo, No. 28 to Marlborough; barge Kate; schooner Jachin; D. & H. Co.'s boats; boat P. D. Enderly from Cornwall to Rondout.

Break Repaired.

The late break in the line of the Delaware & Hudson canal near Port Jervis, which carried away about thirty feet of the embankment, it is expected will be repaired sufficiently to permit of the passage of boats to-day, Saturday.

Another Attack on the Post Mansion.

An attempt was made on Tuesday night by two men to enter the house of Charles Post, son of Abram Post, near Catskill, whose premises were a short time since invaded by the noted gang of robbers. They were alarmed and escaped.

Religious Notice.

Owing to the attendance of the Pastor upon the New York Conference now in session, there will be no service in the Rondout M. E. Church on Sunday. Parties who have prepared pledges under the envelope plan will please send them by post to the Treasurer or to any of the Trustees.

Rare Sport.

Some duck hunters from the upper part of the city went out shooting Thursday and found one duck sailing along very cosily on the water. After crawling on their hands and knees for about an hour to get within range, one of the hunters drew a bead on the unfortunate feathered biped and blazed away. He shot the duck stone dead, and then to his chagrin found it was a tame duck belonging to a friend who lived near the pond. It didn't take them long to settle the bill, and then they decamped.

Sold!

One of the uptown lawyers, who is now a bachelor with a fair expectation of being a benedict soon, was seen to start out in a handsome barouche Wednesday in company with his lady, and in a moment the good folks were in a twitter to know in what church he was to be married. It was soon ascertained there was to be a wedding in the Second Reformed Church, and thither the people hurried making various comments on the way, as "extraordinary proceeding," "he's a sly dog, anyhow," "meant to get married without our knowing it," "he can't fool us, anyhow." Upon arriving at the church they found there was a wedding, but it was the wedding of somebody else, and not the lawyer. He only went to peform the minor duty of waiting on the happy couple. Sold, by gracious!

HEAVY RAILROAD SUIT.

HASBROUCK, ROMER, SHARPE AND OTHERS SUED FOR $79,000.

N. Y., K. & S. R. R. Bonds Claimed to Be Bogus.

A heavy suit has been commenced against George H. Sharpe, Jansen Hasbrouck, William F. Romer, Walter B. Crane, John C. Brodhead, Davis Winne, Burton G. Morss, William Lounsbery, Frank R. Gilbert, R. T. Hume, John C. F. Hoes, W. W. Snow, The N. Y., K. & S. R. R. Co., and The Farmers Loan and Trust Company of the city of New York, defendants, by Ernest Caylis and John De Ruyter, survivor of Charles Montague, plaintiffs, in which the plaintiffs claim judgment for the sum of $79,723. In a sworn complaint of about fifty folios, the plaintiffs claim they sold railroad iron to the above-named road to the amount and value of the sum for which judgment is demanded; that it was agreed the first mortgage bonds of the road should be delivered as collateral security at 66 per cent.—That bonds were given as such security purporting on their face to be the first mortgage consolidated bonds of the N. Y., K. & S. R. R. Co., and that such inscription on such bonds was made with the authority and knowledge of defendants. The plaintiffs relied on the statement on said bonds. That at the time of the passage of the resolution authorizing the issue of the $700,000 of N. Y., K. & S. R. R. bonds, it was well known to these defendants that those bonds were second mortgage bonds, and that the issue of bonds of the R. & O. R. R. Co. covered the whole amount of property of the road. That the N. Y., K. & S. bonds should by the terms of the mortgage securing the N. Y., K. & S. bonds, have been substituted for the R. & O. R. R. bonds, which has not been done. These acts of defendants, who were President and Directors of the Road, as claimed was a fraud on the plaintiffs, and a misfeasance and violation of the duties of their office as Directors of the said railroad company, for which the defendants are personally responsible. The complaint further states the N. Y., K. & S. R. R. Company have made default in the payment of the interest of the first mortgage (of Jan. 1st, 1870), and that the property of the railroad will not be sufficient to produce any surplus whatever applicable to the said $700,000 of bonds issued by the road as the N. Y., K. & S. R. R. bonds, 117 of which remain in the hands of the plaintiff, and that they are absolutely and entirely valueless. Finally, the plaintiffs ask judgment that defendants be forbidden to transfer or dispose of any of the bonds of the R. & O. R. R. Company belonging to them or being in their control, and that they deliver up all such bonds and substitute a like amount of N. Y., K. & S. R. R. bonds; that a receiver of said bonds be appointed, and lastly, plaintiffs ask judgment for the said sum of $79,723. The attorneys are Anderson & Man, of 54 Wall street, New York city, and the papers were served on Friday.

The Wild Pigeon Crop.

The pigeon hunters are beginning to feel nervous about the prospect of pigeon shooting this spring. Some think the birds are setling thick along the banks of the Neversink, and that the people who live there keep quiet about it so as to have the good shooting all to themselves. Our reporter interviewed a Big Indian man on the train the other day, and he said several flocks had been seen, but that the pigeons were not flying in very large numbers. The extremely cold weather and the snow that has fallen during the past two weeks may have had the effect to deter them from entering the cold regions of our county, though we think this doubtful, for in the spring of 1872, when the air was fairly black with pigeons, we remember well it was extremely cold, raw weather. During that spring the pigeons were hardly seen until about the middle of April, and they were found in the largest numbers about the 22d, 23d and 24th of the month.

How Ira Black was Sold.

Ira Black, who lives in the upper part of the city, should be called the Great American Shoveler, for whenever a fall of snow comes Ira is out bright and early and soon has the walks in front of the houses of the good-paying citizens clean as a good shovel and broom could possibly make them. On Friday morning Ira saw a splendid opportunity to score a number of quarters, so he went to work with such a good will that he had finished long before noon. Some one called to him and said: "Ira, been doing a good day's work to-day?" Ira—"Yes; I've been shoveling all the morning. Been down on Pearl street, and just finished shoveling in front of Charlie Deyo's house. Charlie's good pay, you know."—"What!" said the other chap, "been shoveling in front of Charlie Deyo's house? Why, he moved to New Paltz long ago." Ira was somewhat nonplused at this, but finally said, "Well, I thought it was kinder still around the house, but I don't care much; Charlie is a d—n good feller, anyhow."

Temperance Meeting at East Kingston.

A temperance meeting was held at East Kingston on Friday evening. It was organized by the appointment of Thomas L. Johnson of Kingston as Chairman. A hymn was sung, after which Mr. Johnson arose and thanking the audience for honoring him with a unanimous vote for Chairman, and after making a few remarks introduced Mr. Bush, of Minnehaha Division, who made a stirring address. Mr. Hull of Wiltwyck Division was then introduced as the "boy" of the Division by the Chairman. Mr. Hull made some very touching remarks. Another song was sung, and the Chairman introduced Mr. Conklin of Wiltwyck Division, who spoke for a time and received great applause. Other remarks were made, when Mr. Rich called upon Mr. Hull to speak while he circulated the pledge. Several signed the pledge and Mr. Johnston made another speech. When the pledge had been well circulated and about fifty-five ladies and gentlemen had signed it, Mr. Johnson spoke again and the meeting adjourned after singing the long meter doxology.

A Division of Sons of Temperance is to be organized at this place with the title of East Kingston Division.

Hic Jacet.

The uptown dancing school is closed. The last session was held on Thursday night, and to use a homely expression, "the jig is up." Its members have made their last bow (it is to be hoped they have made some improvement since our last article), the lawyers have ceased to disport 'twixt the earth and heavens, and have returned once more to Kent and Barbour; the bankers have executed their last coup, and turned from the etherial to the more material matter of protests, checks, etc.; the ladies have ceased to oscillate their gossamer forms to the ravishing strains wrung from the catgut of Burger's fiddle, and will henceforth undulate with their new-born grace on the streets of our city, to the admiration of the world. The lights are out, the music has ceased, the bills are paid (we hope), and nothing remains to be done except to carve a monument representing a fine and shapely pair of legs, and inscribe a fitting Terpsichorean epitaph. In this epitaph let the legs have honorable mention; the spine should be favorably spoken of, while the great intellects hid within the craniums of this class should not be forgotten; neither should the exceeding grace of the ladies, nor the nerve that never faltered during the most trying excoriations of the dominies. We cannot speak in fitting terms of the last hours of this fandango. Had we the quill of a Dante we might do it justice, but our pen is too feeble. It went out in a blaze of glory, a fitting death to that which had its inception from so wonderful a conglomeration of the devotees of the light-footed muse.

Alleged Attempted Poisoning.

We have received information in relation to an affair which happened in the town of Pleasant Valley, the details of which, if true, show that there has been a fiendish attempt to kill a babe, and as the mother believes, herself also. The woman, who was the means of bringing the matter to light, resides in the town referred to, and her name is Ann McConachy. She formerly resided at Salt Point, and next moved to Pleasant Valley, where she was employed in Armstrong's Hotel. Some time after her arrival at her new home she became acquainted with a man who took care of Wellington Velie's horses, and an improper intimacy sprung up between them, and some time since she gave birth to a child. On different occasions after the birth of the child the woman alleges that the man threatened to kill the infant, and last fall he gave Mrs. McConachy some sugared gum drops and other candy for the babe. The mother did not then give the candy to the child, but on her return from a short absence from her home, fearing that all was not right with the candy, examined it closely and found the gum drops sprinkled with a fine powder. She took them to Squire McCord of Pleasant Valley, and he brought them to this city in January last and placed them in the hands of Dr. Ward, a student in Dr. Parker's office, who tested the sugar looking coating and found it contained arsenic. Acting under advice the candy was placed in a sealed jar, where it now is in Dr. Bayley's office awaiting the final test. Mrs. McConachy, it is alleged, is of the opinion that her paramour intended to have her give the child the poisoned candy which would have killed it, and then she would have been arrested for the crime, found guilty and disposed of, and thus he would have been rid of them both. It is stated that the man referred to has left his employer since the above facts came out and that his whereabouts are not now known.

Mrs. McConachy has appeared before District Attorney Williams and made a statement including substantially all of the above facts.—Poughkeepsie Eagle.

Interesting Case at Saugerties.

Hon. William Lawton, our able and efficient County Judge, was in this village on Tuesday last upon a very important law suit which was being tried before him. The suit is between two of our prominent citzens, and although hotly contested on either side, it is carried on between them in the most friendly mood. It seems F. L. Laflin purchased and received a warranty deed some years ago from Mr. Livingston, of the powder magazine property, consisting of quite a tract of valuable land and dock on the north side of the Esopus Creek in this village. The Powder Company occupied the property for storing and shipping powder for a great number of years. Garret Mynders, who owned a very extensive property adjoining it, being very old, a short time ago divided his property among his heirs, and the lands referred to he gave to the wife of Benjamin M. Freligh and others. Mr. Freligh, for the heirs, now claims that the magazine property form a portion of the lands belonging to Mr. Mynders and by him given to the heirs, and that Mr. Livingston, although he conveyed to Mr. Laflin, never had any title for it. The title to this valuable property is being traced back to a number of generations, and some of the papers in the case, wills, deeds, &c., show great antiquity. Mr. Laflin relies upon his warranty from Mr. Livingston, who is perfectly responsible and is defending it for him, so in case it should be found that Mr. Mynders owned the property, Mr. Livingston will have to respond to Mr. Laflin.—Telegraph.

Cold Charity.

A colored man who has grown gray in the service of a well-to-do gentleman in the upper part of the city, having worked for him nearly twenty years, became very sick a few days ago, when his employer would not allow him in the house, and the old man was forced to make a bed in the hay-mow, where the physician now attends him. To use a mild term, we should say this is certainly not showing a very charitable disposition.

The Circuit Court.

On Monday afternoon, the 13th inst., the Circuit Court and Court of Oyer and Terminer will convene at the Court House. There will be about 300 cases on the civil calendar, but whether many of them will be urged for trial we cannot tell. Some of the cases are quite interesting, and cover about all the different kinds of civil actions known to the legal world. A nice little case brought for seduction, and one for breach of promise of marriage, will go over the term. In regard to the criminal calendar, we understand it will not be very heavy; no case regarded as a very important case will be tried, and it is not thought the session of the grand jury will be a long one, or that many cases will come before them. Justice Douglass Boardman will hold the circuit.

National Academy of Design.

The forty-ninth annual exhibition of the National Academy of Design in New York, is said to be unusually fine this year, and in mentioning its recent opening The New York Tribune of Friday thus speaks of three artists well-known in this city: "S. R. Gifford exhibits several pictures that explain the loyalty of his friends, serene and sunny memories of Italy, and McEntee is here with an important work which can't, however, make us forget the pleasant old ones. But it is not our intention to tell more of what the exhibition contains than will make one reasonably anxious to see it for himself. He will hardly fail when he does see it to agree with us in thinking it an exhibition that does the artists great credit, and credit, too, to the gentlemen who have worked with so much spirit to make it successful—to Mr. J. Q. A. Ward, the accomplished President, Mr. W. Whittredge and Mr. Sanford R. Gifford."

Reported New Day Line.

The Catskill Recorder says it is reported in boating circles in New York that those two thoroughly first-class steamboats, the Long Branch (formerly the Sleepy Hollow—a companion boat of the Sunnyside) and the Jesse Hoyt, will go on a day route from New York to Poughkeepsie. As soon as the summer travel sets in the Northern terminus of the route will be changed to Catskill, and the down boat will leave The Point at 10 A. M. daily—the up boat from New York at 7 A. M. Lively times ahead.

Accidents.

John Clark, a mason who resides in the upper part of the city, was accidentally knocked off a scaffold by the falling of a chimney on McShane's building on Abeel street, Thursday, and injured his breast, shoulders and leg quite badly.

While Frank Bailey and another man were going home to Whiteport from this city via Eddyville, their horse ran the wagon off a high bank above Eddyville, throwing the two men out and injuring them severely. Bailey dislocated his elbow, while the other man was badly bruised about the breast and on his arms. The fall was about thirty feet.

See Ourselves as Others See Us.

The Poughkeepsie Eagle in its issue on Friday says:—"We do not know of any other city on the face of the earth that has a toll-gate on its main street or avenue except Kingston. For a place that boasts so much of its enterprise, we think that the toll-gate business is about the smallest picayune affair we know of, and the quicker Kingston rolls it out of the road the better it will be for her The idea!"

VICINITY.

—Small pox is on the increase in the vicinity of Tarrytown.

—The Hudson River Railroad paymaster is making a welcome visit along the road.

—Westtown has had a mad dog excitement.

—The Poughkeepsie women are holding enthusiastic temperance meetings.

—Anna Place, a Washingtonville young lady, died suddenly and mysteriously and an investigation is being held.

—A Hudson River Railroad conductor "bounced" seven passengers off a train the other day for not paying their fares.

—"Take your lips from rum or from me," is the motto of the temperance girls of Middletown.

—The Newburgh Telegraph indignantly denies that that town patronizes Fishkill rum holes on Sundays. Newburgh has enough and to spare at home, without watering it a drop.

—The horse Ed. Eaton, owned by B. F. Cowan, died of spinal meningitis. He had made a half mile in 1:10 and his owner had refused $12,000 for him.

—The Montclair Railroad in New Jersey was sold at auction last Saturday to A. Guest for $16,090. Two mortages, amounting, it is understood, to $6,000,000, have to be satisfied by the purchaser.

—It is rumored in Troy that the Corning Iron Works are soon to shut down, from a lack of orders, and that the works of Griswold & Co. will reduce the present rate of wages, which were already reduced last fall. A strike is anticipated at the latter mill.

—The Poughkeepsie Eagle says a sixteen or seventeen hundred dollar defalcation has been unearthed in that city, but suppresses the particulars because the affair will be amicably adjusted. Such forbearance was never before heard of on the Eagle's part.

Josh Billings' Book.

Jacob Yost is canvassing this city for JOSH BILLINGS' "Encyclopedia and Proverbial Philosophy of Wit and Humor." This book, it is needless to say to those acquainted with the humorous author's style, is an original and vivacious compilation, and is as funny as can be. The book has been gotten up with much more care than Josh's newspaper productions or lectures, and his wit and humor is keener and more entertaining. The work is profusely illustrated by Nast and other artists, and the pictures are very funny indeed. If you want a book to drive away the blues and cause a healthy laugh, invest in this one.

CITY NOTES.

—J. R. Styles has embellished his residence on East Front street with a handsome piazza.

—The hoodlums have "The Mulligan Guard" bad.

—See the advertisement, in another column, of a muff left in one of the horse cars.

—And now they won't be able to wear those spring hats to church this week.

—People who had put away their snow-shovels had to drag them forth again on Friday morning.

—Winter lingers in the lap of Spring as though he was a great deal more fond of doing that same than we are of having him.

—A number of sidewalks on the most frequented streets did not have the snow shoveled from them on Friday.

—Owing to the detention of the horse cars by the snow on Friday morning some people at the Mansion House missed the Ulster County Express.

—Rev. J. H. Lent, of the New York Conference, will occupy the pulpit of the Second M. E. Church in the upper part of the city, next Sunday morning and evening.

—On Friday one canal boat laden with one hundred and twenty-seven tons of coal reached tide water through the Delaware & Hudson canal.

—Roe, the able steward at the Mansion House, never knew what "living from hand to mouth" meant until mine host De Garmo explained it to him on Friday morning—then Roe did "laff."

—The recollections we heard recounted on Friday of famous April snow storms, if written, would make a larger volume than "What I know about farming," and about as interesting.

—The advance agent of Mc Voy's Hibernicon, with Enoch Carter's assistance, was billing this city for the appearance of that entertainment in Washington Hall, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, April 20th and 21st.

—The quantity of pea-nuts purchased in Washington Hall on the night of the Wallace sisters entertainment was only equaled by the intense satisfaction with which "fellers and their gals" consumed them while "seein' the show."

Personal.

The Rev. F. M. McAllister, formerly rector of St. John's Episcopal Church in this city, was in town on Friday.

Tows.

Up tows from New York:

Boats Hoffman and Mary Bennett, Chundeo, No. 28 to Marlborough; barge Kate; schooner Jachin; D. & H. Co.'s boats; boat P. D. Enderly from Cornwall to Rondout.

Break Repaired.

The late break in the line of the Delaware & Hudson canal near Port Jervis, which carried away about thirty feet of the embankment, it is expected will be repaired sufficiently to permit of the passage of boats to-day, Saturday.

Another Attack on the Post Mansion.

An attempt was made on Tuesday night by two men to enter the house of Charles Post, son of Abram Post, near Catskill, whose premises were a short time since invaded by the noted gang of robbers. They were alarmed and escaped.

Religious Notice.

Owing to the attendance of the Pastor upon the New York Conference now in session, there will be no service in the Rondout M. E. Church on Sunday. Parties who have prepared pledges under the envelope plan will please send them by post to the Treasurer or to any of the Trustees.

Rare Sport.

Some duck hunters from the upper part of the city went out shooting Thursday and found one duck sailing along very cosily on the water. After crawling on their hands and knees for about an hour to get within range, one of the hunters drew a bead on the unfortunate feathered biped and blazed away. He shot the duck stone dead, and then to his chagrin found it was a tame duck belonging to a friend who lived near the pond. It didn't take them long to settle the bill, and then they decamped.

Sold!

One of the uptown lawyers, who is now a bachelor with a fair expectation of being a benedict soon, was seen to start out in a handsome barouche Wednesday in company with his lady, and in a moment the good folks were in a twitter to know in what church he was to be married. It was soon ascertained there was to be a wedding in the Second Reformed Church, and thither the people hurried making various comments on the way, as "extraordinary proceeding," "he's a sly dog, anyhow," "meant to get married without our knowing it," "he can't fool us, anyhow." Upon arriving at the church they found there was a wedding, but it was the wedding of somebody else, and not the lawyer. He only went to peform the minor duty of waiting on the happy couple. Sold, by gracious!

HEAVY RAILROAD SUIT.

HASBROUCK, ROMER, SHARPE AND OTHERS SUED FOR $79,000.

N. Y., K. & S. R. R. Bonds Claimed to Be Bogus.

A heavy suit has been commenced against George H. Sharpe, Jansen Hasbrouck, William F. Romer, Walter B. Crane, John C. Brodhead, Davis Winne, Burton G. Morss, William Lounsbery, Frank R. Gilbert, R. T. Hume, John C. F. Hoes, W. W. Snow, The N. Y., K. & S. R. R. Co., and The Farmers Loan and Trust Company of the city of New York, defendants, by Ernest Caylis and John De Ruyter, survivor of Charles Montague, plaintiffs, in which the plaintiffs claim judgment for the sum of $79,723. In a sworn complaint of about fifty folios, the plaintiffs claim they sold railroad iron to the above-named road to the amount and value of the sum for which judgment is demanded; that it was agreed the first mortgage bonds of the road should be delivered as collateral security at 66 per cent.—That bonds were given as such security purporting on their face to be the first mortgage consolidated bonds of the N. Y., K. & S. R. R. Co., and that such inscription on such bonds was made with the authority and knowledge of defendants. The plaintiffs relied on the statement on said bonds. That at the time of the passage of the resolution authorizing the issue of the $700,000 of N. Y., K. & S. R. R. bonds, it was well known to these defendants that those bonds were second mortgage bonds, and that the issue of bonds of the R. & O. R. R. Co. covered the whole amount of property of the road. That the N. Y., K. & S. bonds should by the terms of the mortgage securing the N. Y., K. & S. bonds, have been substituted for the R. & O. R. R. bonds, which has not been done. These acts of defendants, who were President and Directors of the Road, as claimed was a fraud on the plaintiffs, and a misfeasance and violation of the duties of their office as Directors of the said railroad company, for which the defendants are personally responsible. The complaint further states the N. Y., K. & S. R. R. Company have made default in the payment of the interest of the first mortgage (of Jan. 1st, 1870), and that the property of the railroad will not be sufficient to produce any surplus whatever applicable to the said $700,000 of bonds issued by the road as the N. Y., K. & S. R. R. bonds, 117 of which remain in the hands of the plaintiff, and that they are absolutely and entirely valueless. Finally, the plaintiffs ask judgment that defendants be forbidden to transfer or dispose of any of the bonds of the R. & O. R. R. Company belonging to them or being in their control, and that they deliver up all such bonds and substitute a like amount of N. Y., K. & S. R. R. bonds; that a receiver of said bonds be appointed, and lastly, plaintiffs ask judgment for the said sum of $79,723. The attorneys are Anderson & Man, of 54 Wall street, New York city, and the papers were served on Friday.

The Wild Pigeon Crop.

The pigeon hunters are beginning to feel nervous about the prospect of pigeon shooting this spring. Some think the birds are settling thick along the banks of the Neversink, and that the people who live there keep quiet about it so as to have the good shooting all to themselves. Our reporter interviewed a Big Indian man on the train the other day, and he said several flocks had been seen, but that the pigeons were not flying in very large numbers. The extremely cold weather and the snow that has fallen during the past two weeks may have had the effect to deter them from entering the cold regions of our county, though we think this doubtful, for in the spring of 1872, when the air was fairly black with pigeons, we remember well it was extremely cold, raw weather. During that spring the pigeons were hardly seen until about the middle of April, and they were found in the largest numbers about the 22d, 23d and 24th of the month.

How Ira Black was Sold.

Ira Black, who lives in the upper part of the city, should be called the Great American Shoveler, for whenever a fall of snow comes Ira is out bright and early and soon has the walks in front of the houses of the good-paying citizens clean as a good shovel and broom could possibly make them. On Friday morning Ira saw a splendid opportunity to score a number of quarters, so he went to work with such a good will that he had finished long before noon. Some one called to him and said: "Ira, been doing a good day's work to-day?" Ira—"Yes; I've been shoveling all the morning. Been down on Pearl street, and just finished shoveling in front of Charlie Deyo's house. Charlie's good pay, you know."—"What!" said the other chap, "been shoveling in front of Charlie Deyo's house? Why, he moved to New Paltz long ago." Ira was somewhat nonplused at this, but finally said, "Well, I thought it was kinder still around the house, but I don't care much; Charlie is a d—n good feller, anyhow."

Temperance Meeting at East Kingston.

A temperance meeting was held at East Kingston on Friday evening. It was organized by the appointment of Thomas L. Johnson of Kingston as Chairman. A hymn was sung, after which Mr. Johnson arose and thanking the audience for honoring him with a unanimous vote for Chairman, and after making a few remarks introduced Mr. Bush, of Minnehaha Division, who made a stirring address. Mr. Hull of Wiltwyck Division was then introduced as the "boy" of the Division by the Chairman. Mr. Hull made some very touching remarks. Another song was sung, and the Chairman introduced Mr. Conklin of Wiltwyck Division, who spoke for a time and received great applause. Other remarks were made, when Mr. Rich called upon Mr. Hull to speak while he circulated the pledge. Several signed the pledge and Mr. Johnston made another speech. When the pledge had been well circulated and about fifty-five ladies and gentlemen had signed it, Mr. Johnson spoke again and the meeting adjourned after singing the long meter doxology.

A Division of Sons of Temperance is to be organized at this place with the title of East Kingston Division.

Hic Jacet.

The uptown dancing school is closed. The last session was held on Thursday night, and to use a homely expression, "the jig is up." Its members have made their last bow (it is to be hoped they have made some improvement since our last article), the lawyers have ceased to disport 'twixt the earth and heavens, and have returned once more to Kent and Barbour; the bankers have executed their last coup, and turned from the etherial to the more material matter of protests, checks, etc.; the ladies have ceased to oscillate their gossamer forms to the ravishing strains wrung from the catgut of Burger's fiddle, and will henceforth undulate with their new-born grace on the streets of our city, to the admiration of the world. The lights are out, the music has ceased, the bills are paid (we hope), and nothing remains to be done except to carve a monument representing a fine and shapely pair of legs, and inscribe a fitting Terpsichorean epitaph. In this epitaph let the legs have honorable mention; the spine should be favorably spoken of, while the great intellects hid within the craniums of this class should not be forgotten; neither should the exceeding grace of the ladies, nor the nerve that never faltered during the most trying excoriations of the dominies. We cannot speak in fitting terms of the last hours of this fandango. Had we the quill of a Dante we might do it justice, but our pen is too feeble. It went out in a blaze of glory, a fitting death to that which had its inception from so wonderful a conglomeration of the devotees of the light-footed muse.

Alleged Attempted Poisoning.

We have received information in relation to an affair which happened in the town of Pleasant Valley, the details of which, if true, show that there has been a fiendish attempt to kill a babe, and as the mother believes, herself also. The woman, who was the means of bringing the matter to light, resides in the town referred to, and her name is Ann McConachy. She formerly resided at Salt Point, and next moved to Pleasant Valley, where she was employed in Armstrong's Hotel. Some time after her arrival at her new home she became acquainted with a man who took care of Wellington Velie's horses, and an improper intimacy sprung up between them, and some time since she gave birth to a child. On different occasions after the birth of the child the woman alleges that the man threatened to kill the infant, and last fall he gave Mrs. McConachy some sugared gum drops and other candy for the babe. The mother did not then give the candy to the child, but on her return from a short absence from her home, fearing that all was not right with the candy, examined it closely and found the gum drops sprinkled with a fine powder. She took them to Squire McCord of Pleasant Valley, and he brought them to this city in January last and placed them in the hands of Dr. Ward, a student in Dr. Parker's office, who tested the sugar looking coating and found it contained arsonic. Acting under advice the candy was placed in a sealed jar, where it now is in Dr. Bayley's office awaiting the final test. Mrs. McConachy, it is alleged, is of the opinion that her paramour intended to have her give the child the poisoned candy which would have killed it, and then she would have been arrested for the crime, found guilty and disposed of, and thus he would have been rid of them both. It is stated that the man referred to has left his employer since the above facts came out and that his whereabouts are not now known.

Mrs. McConachy has appeared before District Attorney Williams and made a statement including substantially all of the above facts. —Poughkeepsie Eagle.

Interesting Case at Saugerties.

Hon. William Lawton, our able and efficient County Judge, was in this village on Tuesday last upon a very important law suit which was being tried before him. The suit is between two of our prominent citzens, and although hotly contested on either side, it is carried on between them in the most friendly mood. It seems F. L. Laflin purchased and received a warranty deed some years ago from Mr. Livingston, of the powder magazine property, consisting of quite a tract of valuable land and dock on the north side of the Esopus Creek in this village. The Powder Company occupied the property for storing and shipping powder for a great number of years. Garret Mynders, who owned a very extensive property adjoining it, being very old, a short time ago divided his property among his heirs, and the lands referred to he gave to the wife of Benjamin M. Freligh and others. Mr. Freligh, for the heirs, now claims that the magazine property form a portion of the lands belonging to Mr. Mynders and by him given to the heirs, and that Mr. Livingston, although he conveyed to Mr. Laflin, never had any title for it. The title to this valuable property is being traced back to a number of generations, and some of the papers in the case, wills, deeds, &c., show great antiquity. Mr. Laflin relies upon his warranty from Mr. Livingston, who is perfectly responsible and is defending it for him, so in case it should be found that Mr. Mynders owned the property, Mr. Livingston will have to respond to Mr. Laflin.—Telegraph.

Cold Charity.

A colored man who has grown gray in the service of a well-to-do gentleman in the upper part of the city, having worked for him nearly twenty years, became very sick a few days ago, when his employer would not allow him in the house, and the old man was forced to make a bed in the hay-mow, where the physician now attends him. To use a mild term, we should say this is certainly not showing a very charitable disposition.

The Circuit Court.

On Monday afternoon, the 13th inst., the Circuit Court and Court of Oyer and Terminer will convene at the Court House. There will be about 300 cases on the civil calendar, but whether many of them will be urged for trial we cannot tell. Some of the cases are quite interesting, and cover about all the different kinds of civil actions known to the legal world. A nice little case brought for seduction, and one for breach of promise of marriage, will go over the term. In regard to the criminal calendar, we understand it will not be very heavy; no case regarded as a very important case will be tried, and it is not thought the session of the grand jury will be a long one, or that many cases will come before them. Justice Douglass Boardman will hold the circuit.

National Academy of Design.

The forty-ninth annual exhibition of the National Academy of Design in New York, is said to be unusually fine this year, and in mentioning its recent opening The New York Tribune of Friday thus speaks of three artists well-known in this city: "S. R. Gifford exhibits several pictures that explain the loyalty of his friends, serene and sunny memories of Italy, and McEntee is here with an important work which can't, however, make us forget the pleasant old ones. But it is not our intention to tell more of what the exhibition contains than will make one reasonably anxious to see it for himself. He will hardly fail when he does see it to agree with us in thinking it an exhibition that does the artists great credit, and credit, too, to the gentlemen who have worked with so much spirit to make it successful—to Mr. J. Q. A. Ward, the accomplished President, Mr. W. Whittredge and Mr. Sanford R. Gifford."

Reported New Day Line.

The Catskill Recorder says it is reported in boating circles in New York that those two thoroughly first-class steamboats, the Long Branch (formerly the Sleepy Hollow—a companion boat of the Sunnyside) and the Jesse Hoyt, will go on a day route from New York to Poughkeepsie. As soon as the summer travel sets in the Northern terminus of the route will be changed to Catskill, and the down boat will leave The Point at 10 A. M. daily—the up boat from New York at 7 A. M. Lively times ahead.

Accidents.

John Clark, a mason who resides in the upper part of the city, was accidentally knocked off a scaffold by the falling of a chimney on McShane's building on Abeel street, Thursday, and injured his breast, shoulders and leg quite badly.

While Frank Bailey and another man were going home to Whiteport from this city via Eddyville, their horse ran the wagon off a high bank above Eddyville, throwing the two men out and injuring them severely. Bailey dislocated his elbow, while the other man was badly bruised about the breast and on his arms. The fall was about thirty feet.

See Ourselves as Others See Us.

The Poughkeepsie Eagle in its issue on Friday says:—"We do not know of any other city on the face of the earth that has a toll-gate on its main street or avenue except Kingston. For a place that boasts so much of its enterprise, we think that the toll-gate business is about the smallest picayune affair we know of, and the quicker Kingston rolls it out of the road the better it will be for her The idea!"

VICINITY.

—Small pox is on the increase in the vicinity of Tarrytown.

—The Hudson River Railroad paymaster is making a welcome visit along the road.

—Westtown has had a mad dog excitement.

—The Poughkeepsie women are holding enthusiastic temperance meetings.

—Anna Place, a Washingtonville young lady, died suddenly and mysteriously and an investigation is being held.

—A Hudson River Railroad conductor "bounced" seven passengers off a train the other day for not paying their fares.

—"Take your lips from rum or from me," is the motto of the temperance girls of Middletown.

—The Newburgh Telegraph indignantly denies that that town patronizes Fishkill rum holes on Sundays. Newburgh has enough and to spare at home, without watering it a drop.

—The horse Ed. Eaton, owned by B. F. Cowan, died of spinal meningitis. He had made a half mile in 1:10 and his owner had refused $12,000 for him.

—The Montclair Railroad in New Jersey was sold at auction last Saturday to A. Guest for $16,090. Two mortages, amounting, it is understood, to $6,000,000, have to be satisfied by the purchaser.

—It is rumored in Troy that the Corning Iron Works are soon to shut down, from a lack of orders, and that the works of Griswold & Co. will reduce the present rate of wages, which were already reduced last fall. A strike is anticipated at the latter mill.

—The Poughkeepsie Eagle says a sixteen or seventeen hundred dollar defalcation has been unearthed in that city, but suppresses the particulars because the affair will be amicably adjusted. Such forbearance was never before heard of on the Eagle's part.

Josh Billings' Book.

Jacob Yost is canvassing this city for JOSH BILLINGS' "Encyclopedia and Proverbial Philosophy of Wit and Humor." This book, it is needless to say to those acquainted with the humorous author's style, is an original and vivacious compilation, and is as funny as can be. The book has been gotten up with much more care than Josh's newspaper productions or lectures, and his wit and humor is keener and more entertaining. The work is profusely illustrated by Nast and other artists, and the pictures are very funny indeed. If you want a book to drive away the blues and cause a healthy laugh, invest in this one.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelminitics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked. "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelminitics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.
